Tantra & Erotic Trance John Ryan Haule, 2012 In Volume One of this study Outer Work we described managing our orgasmic response so as to cultivate erotic trance the altered state of consciousness that is the foundation of all Tantric activity and we used it to climb the diamond ladder of mystical ascent to a rung characterized by the management of overwhelming emotions Now in Volume Two Inner Work we turn our attention away from outer goals having to do with our physiology and our relation to society at large and its prescriptions to the much more subtle interior changes occurring in our consciousness Continuing our climb up the rungs of the diamond ladder we are introduced to the landscape of mysticism a topography whose several regions are each characterized by the mastery of a different psychological capacity Yoga gives us an interior ladder in the form of the subtle body that is comprised of the chakras each of which opens onto a distinctly different emotional realm In this work our feeling function becomes highly differentiated Tibetan mandala meditation disciplines our imaginative capacity as we bring the heavenly palace of copulating gods and goddesses into being By cultivating emptiness we pare away our attachments to the memories that have been holding us back and the aspirations that narrow our future so that we can dwell in the present moment without the props of doctrine and method Passing beyond our personal self we are introduced to the divine oneness of the cosmos pulsing between accomplished union and the vision of that with which we are united We return from such ecstasy to live our temporal lives on two planes simultaneously as spiritual wayfarers Motion Picture Classic, 1916 Rides Out and about Rides, 1878 The Gifted Ones Joan H Parks, 2025-09-03 The adventures continue Dalil realizes his vocation as a story teller and also as a wanderer who collects stories before they vanish in the great destruction He gains a worthy mate as he gains his vocation Alimah the singer of songs and dancer studying in Egypt meets a man of the far north at that school Danger and violence pursue them both they flee and have many adventures until he goes back to his home land She stays and bears their child and mates with Kaliq as she meant to do Nahid the jeweler goes to the far mountains of Badakhshan for lapis returns and finds that the Kin are leaving Mesopotamia for a remote mountain valley near the Great Green Sea He driven by his dreams must go to Amarna where Thutmose made his great art He does so and acquires the mysterious Rabiah as his mate Fleeing Egypt as so many have they return to the Kin in their mountain valley in the hills of Lebanon Ride the Hot Wind Lewis B. Much scarred orphan Truman Kramer having joined the Peace Corps is assigned to a small Malaysian community serving an assemblage of all but forgotten handicapped children Truman never having kissed a girl becomes involved with an unloved married woman a shopkeeper s wife craving anything of her own As his service wanes mired in earnestness and deceit his lover s husband discovers his wife s affair Torn with remorse young Truman acts plumbing the depths of love and our need to attach ourselves to other human beings Laughing Boy Oliver La Farge,2025-01-01T09:01:00Z Laughing Boy is the name of a young Navajo man living in the American Southwest during the era when the Americans are pushing westward in earnest He s looking to find his way in the world and earn the respect of his tribe when he meets a mysterious and fiery young woman Slim Girl at a tribal meet Slim Girl was raised in an American Indian school a type of boarding school designed by missionaries to civilize the native population Her experiences there left her deeply resentful and this bitterness carries on in her approach to the world where Laughing Boy is optimistic respectful of tradition and comfortable with himself Slim Girl is calculating tough and secretive The two quickly fall in love but Laughing Boy s family warns against the union it seems that Slim Girl has a reputation that precedes her Despite the warning the two begin a life together in a way that blends the traditional with the new American before a dark secret in Slim Girl s past threatens their happiness The story is on its face a love story but La Farge uses the framework of a romance to explore much deeper questions of tradition native versus

Western lifestyles and how the inexorable expansion of Americans into the West changed things for the civilizations living there. La Farge was not just a novelist; he was also an anthropologist who spent much of his career studying Native Americans, the Navajo in particular. His deep knowledge of their culture, practices, and language allows him to create a convincing air of authenticity in the narrative, which went on to earn the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1930. This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project, which produces free public domain ebooks. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1973. Laughing Boy by Oliver La Farge, 2004-06-05. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize. A romantic idyll played out in the rhythms and meanings of a vanished Navajo world. The Denver Post: Laughing Boy is a model member of his tribe. Raised in old traditions, skilled in silver work, and known for his prowess in the wild horse races, he does the Navajos of Tótlakai proud. But times are changing. It is 1914, and the first car has just driven into their country. Then Laughing Boy meets Slim Girl, and despite her American education and the warnings of his family, he gives in to desire and marries her. As Laughing Boy and Slim Girl settle away from traditional villages, their different upbringings clash within both their relationship and the ever-encroaching culture around them. Each of their worlds is thrown into a heart-wrenching turmoil of love, honor, hope, and heritage. Compelling in its strength and simplicity, and its fidelity to the deepest impulses of human nature, Laughing Boy is an unprecedented look at both the Navajo culture and the enduring legacy of tradition and loss that all Americans share. Pulga has his dreams, Chico has his grief, Peque has her pride. And these three teens have one another. But none of them have illusions about the town they've grown up in, and the dangers that surround them. Even with the love of family, threats lurk around every corner. And when those threats become all too real, the trio knows they have no choice but to run from their country, from their families, from their beloved home. Crossing from Guatemala through Mexico, they follow the route of La Bestia, the perilous train system that might deliver them to a better life if they are lucky enough to survive the journey. With nothing but the bags on their backs and desperation drumming through their hearts, Pulga, Chico, and Peque know there is no turning back despite the unknown that awaits them. And the darkness that seems to follow wherever they go. In this striking portrait of lives torn apart, the plight of migrants at the U.S. southern border is brought to light through poignant, vivid storytelling. An epic journey of danger, resilience, heartache, and hope. Praise for We Are Not From Here: A fierce and tender story. Relevant, timely, and perceptive. Margarita Engle, winner of the Pura Belpré Award and Newbery Honor.
