leading military commanders South Africa has produced As Chief of the South African Defence Force from 1985 to 1990 he brought his experience to bear on the Border War in Namibia and was part of the negotiating team that brought an end to the conflict in 1989 In this completely revised and updated edition Geldenhuys reflects on a military career spanning more than four decades At the Front covers the years before and during the protracted Border War and consists of Geldenhuys personal experiences and insights He sheds light on the final years of the conflict and the negotiated settlement and also writes of his early years as he evolved from a rugby mad young officer to a deep thinking reflective man with ever sharpening insights into war peace politics and most of all himself A Rifleman's Diary Eric Fawbert,2008-02-18 In 1940 the author was accepted for RAF flying crew then changed his mind and opted for the infantry Why see book As he survived 6 years 4 in the front lines of N Africa Italy and NW Europe without a scratch he has never regretted the change Back in Civvy Street after the war and having voted Churchill out of office his diaries were relegated to the attic and brought out only recently as of interest in his old age and a change from the boredom of TV etc They did more than relieve boredom however as they reminded him that his service although not overtly recognised was something to be proud of He decided that an easy reading book would be of interest to his two children and the family name as well as an opportunity to dispel a number of fallacies of that time and to give a true insight into the life and thoughts of a ranker in the field The author believes that most war books are biased to some extent occasionally unintended but often intentionally so he stresses that this book adheres to the diary entries written on site at the time occasionally whilst still under fire His views tend to be confrontational but have not been challenged in the course of a private issue This book is intended for a wider readership Gallantry Medals & Decorations of the World John Clarke,2000-09-12 This book is acknowledged as the only work dealing exclusively with the identification and description of international gallantry awards past and present The multitude of illustrations allows the reader to readily identify those awards most likely to be encountered The work embraces forty three countries and describes 270 decorations together with their various classes A ten page ribbon chart shows 216 different world gallantry ribbons all in full colour
