Children in the International Political Economy G. Kent,1995-09-13 The first line of responsibility for children lies with their parents but what if the parents fail to look after their children Who else is involved and what should they do Children in the International Political Economy examines the moral responsibilities of different individuals and agencies towards children and argues that some responsibilities should be codified as concrete legal duties If all else fails children must look to the international community for help Thus international agencies should recognize specific obligations to look after the well being of children around the world

The Idea and the Documents of Human Rights Ioanna Kuçuradi,2021-01-27 The most significant achievement of 20th century is probably the importance ascribed to the idea of human rights And perhaps the most significant endeavour of the world community in the second half of this century is its attempt to codify these ethical demands in declarations covenants and similar instruments expected to have universal validity Yet besides the unscrupulous violence torture and social injustice which continue to prevail in our world we also see gaining more and more ground tendencies to promote demands and practices which constitute unnoticed obstacles to the protection of human rights Is it not the so called herd immunity as a way to fight against a pandemic a violation of the right to life What are our shortcomings The present volume is an attempt to bring into focus one of these shortcomings the lack of clear knowledge of what human rights are

Transnational Legal Processes Michael Likosky,2002-04 This work comprises 24 linked essays by leading transatlantic scholars in international law and the social sciences examining the sociolegal aspects of multi jurisdictional legal techniques and trans jurisdictional social phenomena The contributors bring a range of disciplinary expertises including anthropology economics law and sociology to bear on key questions raised by transnational legal processes The pieces explore legal developments in multiple territories including Africa Asia Latin America and the United States The volume is designed as a general reader for courses on law and globalisation and related studies The collection is made up of four parts each addressing a central theme in transnational law and legal action law making and compliance human rights commerce and governance The essays discuss such diverse problems as the role of foreign actors in the ethnic conflicts of Kosovo and Rwanda the power the United States and the UK wield over international capital markets and the adaptability of existing public international law to deal with the challenges wrought by globalisation
