Streets of Sin Fiona Rule, 2015-08-03 Notting Hill was not always an upmarket residential enclave and celebrity hotspot Streets of Sin delves into the district's murky past and relates the deplorable scandals and shocking crimes that blighted the area from its development until the late twentieth century Best selling London historian Fiona Rule sheds new light on notorious events that took place amid the leafy streets including the horrifying murders at Rillington Place the nefarious career of slum landlord Peter Rachman the Profumo affair and Britain's first race riots She reveals what life was like in Rotting Hill during its dark years when murder extortion and disorder were everyday occurrences and explores the price its residents have had to pay to climb up out of the ghetto Adult Themes Anne Etienne, Benjamin Halligan, Christopher Weedman, 2023-08-24 Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X certificated films In parallel with an era marked by social political and sexual ferment and upheaval British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence horror revolt and sexuality on screen Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s How did the British Board of Film Censors harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom oversee and manage this provocative body of films How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X certificate hasten determine and reshape post war British cinema into an artistic exploitative and unapologetically adult medium Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties on youthful crime sprees into local council meetings on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs and introduce us to mass murderers lesbian vampires apoplectic protestors eroticised middle aged women and rebellious working class men Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship the limits of artistic expression and a wider culture of X certificate cinema This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship Media Studies the 1960s and Cultural and Sexuality Studies while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous Destroy Unopened Anabel Donald, 2015-10-22 Alex if you had a son who told you that he liked his new flat because it was built on the site of 10 Rillington Place what would you think Hillary I wish you'd get to the point I said as gently as I could manage She was ruffled but not distracted If a son of yours said that would you think he was the Notting Hill killer Alex Tanner part time private eye has given little thought to the serial killer stalking the streets of Notting Hill except to the effect he may have on house prices But then a wealthy widow hands her a parcel marked DESTROY UNOPENED The parcel given to Hilary Lucas following her husband's death contains anonymous love letters written over many years Not surprisingly Hilary wants Alex to reveal the mystery lover's identity Especially when the letters suggest that the woman is the mother of the Notting Hill killer A Date with the Hangman Gary Dobbs, 2020-02-19 A true crime history of 20th century British judicial hangings from 1900 to 1964

and a look at the overall history of executions in Great Britain It is a sobering thought that until the closing years of the twentieth century Britain's courts were technically able to impose the death penalty for several offenses both civil and military Although the last judicial hangings took place in 1964 the death penalty in theory at least remained for a number of crimes During the twentieth century 865 people were executed in Britain This book examines each and every one of those executions and in many cases highlights the crimes that brought these men and women to the gallows The book also details the various forms of capital punishment used throughout British history During past centuries people were burned at the stake had the skin flayed from their bodies were beheaded garroted hung drawn and quartered stoned disemboweled buried alive and all under the guidance of a vengeful law or at least what passed for law at any given period The author Gary M Dobbs has painstakingly collected together every available piece of evidence to provide as clear a picture as possible of a time when the law operated on the principle of an eye for an eye Dobbs is a true crime historian and has spent many hours researching the cases featured herein to bring the reader a definitive history of judicial punishment during the twentieth century and this carefully researched well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to anyone interested in the darker side of history A brilliant read Books Monthly UK

Hanged at Pentonville Steve Fielding, 2008-02-29 The history of execution at Pentonville began with the hanging of a Scottish hawker in 1902 Over the next sixty years the names of those who made the short walk to the gallows reads like a who's who of twentieth century murder They include the notorious Dr Crippen Neville Heath mass murderer John Christie of Rillington Place as well as scores of forgotten criminals German spies Italian gangsters teenage tearaways cut throat killers and many more Infamous executioners also played a part in the gaol's history the Billington family of Bolton Rochdale barber John Ellis and Robert Baxter of Hertford who for over a decade was the sole executioner at Pentonville For many years the prison was used to train the country's hangmen including members of the well known Pierrepoint family Harry Allen and Robert Leslie Stewart the country's last executioners Fully illustrated with photographs news cuttings and engravings Hanged at Pentonville is bound to appeal to anyone interested in the darker side of London's history

Frenzy! Neil Root, 2012-08-31 Murder has transfixed the popular press for centuries But it was only in the second half of the twentieth century that murder began saturating front pages and making these monsters what we today recognise as modern celebrities It was three serial killers caught and executed in the few years after the end of the Second World War who precipitated a level of public furore never seen before Neville Heath a charming sadist who killed two women John George Haigh the Acid Bath Killer who killed between six and nine men and women and John Christie the ineffectual necrophile who killed between six and eight women The modern news coverage finds its roots with these three men whom the crime historian Donald Thomas called the Postwar Psychopaths Their crimes were the first to generate a tabloid frenzy the like of which we see all around us today It was not only the murderers who captured the public's imagination It was the detectives who hunted them down the judiciary who tried them and the man who executed them the legendary hangman

Albert Pierrepoint This book tells the stories of these three infamous serial killers against the backdrop of the tabloid frenzy that surrounded them
