A Shouting of Orders Kevin McCray, 2024-09-25 A Shouting of Orders conveys the history of the 99th Ohio Volunteer Infantry an American Civil War unit formed from the counties of northwest Ohio surrounding Lima The regiment one among nearly 200 formed in the Buckeye State has a history rich in personalities and experiences A Shouting of Orders is the culmination of nearly 10 years of research and features previously unpublished primary source documents from key members of the regiment including the lieutenant colonel and a company captain McCray also heavily relied on the regimental papers kept with the National Archives as well as contemporary newspaper reports

Cross-X Joe Miller, 2007-10-02 In Cross X journalist Joe Miller follows the Kansas City Central High School s debate squad through the 2002 season that ends with a top ten finish at the national championships in Atlanta By almost all measures Central is just another failing inner city school Ninety nine percent of the students are minorities Only one in three graduate Test scores are so low that Missouri bureaucrats have declared the school academically deficient But week after week a crew of Central kids heads off to debate tournaments in suburbs across the Midwest and South where they routinely beat teams from top ranked schools In a game of fast talking wit and sheer brilliance these students close the achievement gap between black and white students an accomplishment that educators and policy makers across the country have been striving toward for years Here is the riveting and poignant story of four debaters and their coach as they battle formidable opponents from elite prep schools bureaucrats who seem maddeningly determined to hold them back friends and family who are mired in poverty and drug addiction and perhaps most daunting their own self destructive choices In the end Miller finds himself on a campaign to change debate itself certain that these students from the Eastside of Kansas City may be the saviors of a game that is intrinsic to American democracy THE MAXWELL

DEPOSITIONS: NIMITAC Malcolm White,2010-08-25 However the boxes behind me pertain to this deposition and the individual responsible for all of this They pertain to the events of October 31 to the death of a State Judge his bodyguard two of his Security Officers and one of his guests The kidnapping of twelve children the death of one child the arrest of five Police Officers on charges ranging from racketeering possession with intent to distribute controlled substances drugs corruption child prostitution to possession and distribution of child pornography and the confiscation of over a million dollars of cold hard cash and William T Maxwell s connection to it all Now allow me to give you a narrative a chronicle if you will or just a story about a man A story about a man named William T Maxwell The Maxwell Deposition: Nimitac Malcolm White,

Fairfax Colleen Ryan,2014-08-01 Fairfax once a great Australian media company faces a grim future Newspapers worldwide are faltering in the face of competition from the internet but the fate of Fairfax stands out as being particularly cruel The carnage is barely credible Massive printing plants are being dismantled Hundreds of fine journalists have been ushered from the building The newspapers themselves are on notice The future of the company is shaky Fairfax The Rise and Fall is a story that is book ended by young Warwick Fairfax and Gina Rinehart the eccentric beneficiaries of two of the greatest family fortunes Australia has ever seen But the real players in the Fairfax saga are the business and political giants They include Kerry Packer Rupert Murdoch Conrad Black John Howard Paul Keating Neville Wran David Gonski Roger Corbett and Fred Hilmer The once mighty Fairfax has been a victim of them all Colleen Ryan gives the definitive account of the fate of Fairfax a drama filled saga that reveals how far Fairfax has fallen

Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 Light Up the Night Weston Parker,2024-02-22 Reckless That s what they call me I rush into burning building to save lives and I wish it was for a just cause It s not It s to prove that I m worthy of love A messed up knee and my dreams of being in the NFL are gone I m fearless when it comes to fighting back death That s not what f cks me up It s living that gets me The last thing I need in my life is a woman no matter how bad I want one And yet this one has me pacing the floor The single mom who owns my crew s favorite restaurant is sweet loving and hot as hell It s not that easy though She s lost too much in her life to give out free chances to men like me But I m not asking for a chance I m taking it Every Good Girl Deserves a Bad Boy Weston Shout, Sister, Shout! Roxane Orgill,2001 Biographical sketches of ten outstanding female singers of popular music in the twentieth century The Trouble in Room 519 Thomas Aiello,2021-08-18 At approximately seven o clock in the evening on May 7 1950 Gordon Malherbe Hillman filled an empty bottle with water capped it and walked into his mother s room in the pair s fifth floor suite at Boston s luxurious Copley Plaza Hotel He then edged up behind the semi invalid woman and bludgeoned her to death Hotel staff had planned to evict the two the following day after several weeks of unpaid rent Mounting debts had finally broken the fifty year old Hillman a now struggling author of mixed success but it had not always been that way as Thomas Aiello shows in his study of the life and work of this forgotten midcentury figure As a youth Hillman attended the prestigious Noble and Greenough School near Boston Pursuing a career as a writer he published several dozen pieces of short fiction and a critically acclaimed novel Fortune's Cup 1941 Hollywood studios purchased the rights to two of his stories and made them into films The Great Man Votes 1939 and Here I Am a Stranger 1940 But Hillman remained for the most part a middling magazine writer like the majority of fiction authors working during the Depression Although most did not resort to acts of manic violence Hillman's tenuous position in literary circles along with his gradual descent into financial ruin proved a far more common tale than the stories of literary success often pored over by critics and historians of this period In The Trouble in Room 519 Money Matricide and Marginal Fiction in the Early Twentieth Century Aiello weaves a compelling true crime narrative into his exploration of the economics of magazine fiction and the strains placed on authors by the publishing industry prior to World War II Examining Hillman's writing as exemplary of Depression era popular fiction Aiello includes eight stories written by Hillman and originally published in prominent midcentury American magazines including Collier's Liberty and McCall's to provide additional context and insight into this trying time and tragic life Buffalo Shout, Salmon Cry Steve Heinrichs, 2013-06-19 How can North Americans come to terms with the lamentable clash between indigenous and settler cultures faiths and attitudes toward creation Showcasing a variety of voices both traditional and Christian native and non native Buffalo Shout Salmon Cry offers up alternative histories radical theologies and poetic life giving memories that can unsettle our souls and work toward reconciliation This book is intended for all who are interested in healing historical wounds of racism stolen land and cultural exploitation Essays on land use creation history and faith appear among poems and reflections by people across ethnic and religious divides The writers do not always agree in fact some are bound to raise readers defenses But they represent the hard truths that we must hear before reconciliation can come Many who read Buffalo Shout Salmon Cry are wondering How can I respond Paths for Peacemaking with Host Peoples is a short document intended to give people tangible ways to act and respond to some of the things learned in Buffalo Shout Salmon Cry Click here to download Free downloadable study guide available here Ring Shout, Wheel About Katrina Dyonne Thompson, 2014-01-30 In this ambitious project historian Katrina Thompson examines the conceptualization and staging of race through the performance sometimes coerced of black dance from the slave ship to the minstrel stage Drawing on a rich variety of sources Thompson explicates how black musical performance was used by white Europeans and Americans to justify enslavement perpetuate the existing racial hierarchy and mask the brutality of the domestic slave trade Whether on slave ships at the auction block or on plantations whites often used coerced performances to oppress and demean the enslaved As Thompson shows however blacks backstage use of musical performance often served quite a different purpose Through creolization and other means enslaved people preserved some native musical and dance traditions and invented or adopted new traditions that built community and even aided rebellion Thompson shows how these traditions evolved into nineteenth century minstrelsy and ultimately raises the question of whether today's mass media performances and depictions of African Americans are so very far removed from their troublesome roots

Shouting Down the Silence David C Dougherty, 2010-10-01 Shouting Down the Silence presents the first complete biography of Stanley Elkin a preeminent novelist who consistently won high marks from critics but whose complexities of style seemed destined to elude the popular acclaim he hoped to attain From the publication of his second novel A Bad Man in 1967 to his death in 1995 Elkin was tormented by the desire for both material and artistic success Elkin's novels were taught in colleges and universities his fiction received high praise from critics and reviewers two of his novels won National Book Critics Circle Awards and his short stories were widely anthologized and yet he was unable to achieve renown beyond the avant garde or to escape the stigma of being an academic writer He wanted to be Faulkner but he had trouble being Elkin Drawing on personal interviews and an intimate knowledge of Elkin's life and works David C Dougherty captures Elkin's early life as the son of a charismatic intimidating and remarkably successful Jewish immigrant from Russia as well as his later career at Washington University in St Louis A frequent participant at the annual Bread Loaf Writers conference he was the friend and sometime antagonist of other important writers particularly Saul Bellow William Gass Howard Nemerov and Robert Coover Despite failed attempts to bridge the gap from his academic post to wide popular success Elkin continued to write essays stories and novels that garnered unerring praise His was a classic dilemma of an intellectual aesthete loath to make use of the common devices of popular appeal The book details the ambition the success the friction and the foibles of a writer who won fame but not the fame he wanted

Why Didn't the Press Shout? Robert Moses Shapiro, 2003 This book brings together contributions by thirty scholars of journalism and history who look at what was reported about the Holocaust in the press of more than a dozen countries and languages The studies examine the news media in America England and the Soviet Union in Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy in the Vatican in occupied countries like Romania Hungary Greece and Poland and in Palestine under the British Mandate By and large the news media in the Allied countries neglected the story while those in Nazi dominated countries treated news related to the Holocaust in a wholly tendentious way Thus the press for a variety of reasons did not cover the Holocaust one of the central events of the twentieth century As this book thoroughly demonstrates it was perhaps the greatest ethical professional and political failure of the news media during World War II If the press had been more responsible and had informed the public in the West early enough and thoroughly enough the history of the Holocaust might have been different and millions of victims might have survived Published in association with Yeshiva University Press
