Rise And Fall Of Gay Culture:

The Rise and Fall of Gay Culture Daniel Harris, 1997-05 In an unprecedented analytic examination of the daily lives of gay men respected and confrontational essayist Daniel Harris investigates the artifacts rituals and institutions of gay culture focusing on a central historical question What happens to a sensibility that was developed in response to ostracism when that subculture becomes less excluded 30 photos

Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history

Queer Theory and Social Change Max H. Kirsch, 2013-04-15 Queer Theory and Social Change argues that there is a crisis within Queer theory over whether or not its theories can actually deliver change Max Kirsch presents a challenging alternative to the current fascination with post modern analyses of identity culture and difference It emphasizes the need for a discussion of the importance of communities and the role of globalization on queer movements

Hallas,2009-12-02 Examines how queer filmmakers and viedographers bore witness to the historical trauma of the AIDS epidemic in the late 1980s and 1990s Screening Queer Memory Anamarija Horvat,2021-04-22 In Screening Queer Memory Anamarija Horvat examines how LGBTQ history has been represented on screen and interrogates the specificity of queer memory She poses several questions How are the pasts of LGBTQ people and communities visualised and commemorated on screen How do these representations comment on the influence of film and television on the construction of queer memory How do they present the passage of memory from one generation of LGBTQ people to another Finally which narratives of the queer past particularly of the activist past are being commemorated and which obscured Horvat exemplifies how contemporary British and American cinema and television have commented on the specificity of queer memory how they have reflected aspects of its construction as well as participated in its creation In doing so she adds to an under examined area of queer film and television research which has privileged concepts of nostalgia history temporality and the archive over memory Films and television shows explored include Cheryl Dunye s The Watermelon Woman 1996 Todd Haynes Velvet Goldmine 1998 Joey Soloway s Transparent 2014 2019 Matthew Warchus Pride 2014 and Tom Rob Smith s London Spy 2015

The Rise and Fall of the Gay Liberation Front David Fernbach,LSE-Gay Culture Society,1973 Swinging Single Hilary Radner,Moya Luckett,1999 Critics and defenders alike connect today s widespread anxieties about sexuality and culture to the political activism of the 1960s and the counterculture s preoccupation with the individual pursuit of pleasure In contrast the essays in Swindling Single attribute the new sexual mores of that era not to its political upheavals but to a confluence of social cultural and economic factors that encouraged personal gratification and altered traditionally defined gender roles Contributors analyze a broad range of topics the commercialization of avant garde and exploitation films new visions of female sexuality in That Girl and The Avengers the social context of such cultural icons as Hugh Hefner and Charles Manson the intersection of race and sexuality in Eldridge Cleaver s Soul on Ice and depictions of sexual pleasure in pornography and scientific films The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde Allen,Annette Hill,2004 The Television Studies Reader brings together key writings in the expanding field of television studies providing an overview of the discipline and addressing issues of industry genre audiences production and ownership and representation The Reader charts the ways in which television and television studies are being redefined by new and alternative ways of producing broadcasting and watching TV such as cable satellite and digital broadcasting home video internet broadcasting and interactive TV as well as exploring the recent boom in genres such as reality TV and docusoaps It brings together articles from leading international scholars to provide perspectives on television programmes and practices from around the world acknowledging both television s status as a global medium and the many and varied local contexts of its production and reception Articles are grouped in seven themed sections each with an introduction by the editors Institutions of Television Spaces of Television Modes of Television Making Television Social Representation on Television Watching Television
