Rising To Power Paul Desmarais Power Corporation:

Where on Earth Are We Going? Maurice Strong, 2010-11-05 A surprising call to action from a key business and environmental player at the dawn of the millenium From the Report to the Shareholders Earth Inc dated January 1 2030 that begins Where on Earth Are We Going world hunger ecological and environmental disaster global warming massive shifts in weather systems the re emergence of diseases long thought controlled and political turmoil in a world where a barrel of water is more expensive than a barrel of oil Hard headed practical impassioned this is a call to action by a key business and environmental leader at the end of the twentieth century that cannot be ignored To explain how he came by his beliefs Maurice Strong chronicles his poverty stricken beginnings as a child in the prairies during the Depression to his appointment as President of Power Corporation at 29 his appointment as Undersecretary of the United Nations at 40 and on the domestic front as Chairman of Ontario Hydro

Brewed in the North Matthew J. Bellamy, 2019-10-10 For decades the name Labatt was synonymous with beer in Canada but no longer Brewed in the North traces the birth growth and demise of one of the nation's oldest and most successful breweries Opening a window into Canada's complicated relationship with beer Matthew Bellamy examines the strategic decisions taken by a long line of Labatt family members and professional managers from the 1840s when John Kinder Labatt entered the business of brewing in the Upper Canadian town of London to the globalization of the industry in the 1990s Spotlighting the challenges involved as Labatt executives adjusted to external shocks the advent of the railway Prohibition war the Great Depression new forms of competition and free trade Bellamy offers a case study of success and failure in business Through Labatt's lively history from 1847 to 1995 this book explores the wider spirit of Canadian capitalism the interplay between the state's moral economy and enterprise and the difficulties of creating popular beer brands in a country that is regionally linguistically and culturally diverse A comprehensive look at one of the industry's most iconic firms Brewed in the North sheds light on what it takes to succeed in the business of Canadian brewing

Tug of War Jocelyn Wills, 2017-09-04 Selling Earth observation satellites on their abilities to predict and limit adverse environmental change politicians business leaders the media and technology enthusiasts have spent sixty years arguing that space exploration can create a more peaceful prosperous world Capitalist states have also socialized the risk and privatized the profits of the commercial space industry by convincing taxpayers to fund surveillance technologies as necessary components of sovereignty freedom and democracy Jocelyn Wills's Tug of War reminds us that colonizing the cosmos has not only accelerated the arms race but also encouraged government contractors to compete for the military and commercial spoils of surveillance Although Canadians prefer to celebrate their role as purveyors of peaceful space applications Canada has played a pivotal part in the expansion of neoliberal policies and surveillance networks that now encircle the globe primarily as a political ally of the United States and component supplier for its military industrial complex Tracing the forty five year history of Canada's largest space company MacDonald Dettwiler and Associates MDA through the lens of surveillance studies and a trove of oral history transcripts government documents trade journals and other sources Wills places capitalism's imperial ambitions squarely at the centre of Canada US relations and the privatization of the Canadian political economy Tug of War confronts the mythic lure of technological progress and the ways in which those who profess little interest in war rationalize their leap into military contracting by avoiding the moral and political implications of their work CM, 1988 Mulroney John Sawatsky, 1992 Democracy's Oxygen James P.
