Risk And Resilience Adults Who Were The Children Of Problem Drinkers

Griffith Edwards, E. Jane
Marshall, Christopher C. H. Cook

Risk and Resilience Richard Velleman, Jim Orford, 2013-01-11 Risk and Resilience looks at the issue of young adults who grew up in families where a parent and sometimes both had a drinking problem Alcohol related problems are now recognized as being near the very top of the world league table of health and social problems Since the large majority of problem drinkers are adults aged between 22 and 55 many are parents with children or adolescents in their care In the USA alone there are estimated to be over six million children under the age of 18 living with a parent with a drinking problem and over 22 million adults one in every eight American adults who were brought up with a parent who had a drinking problem Clearly many children who grow up in this sort of environment have a difficult childhood Velleman and Orford examine the question of what happens to such children when they grow up Risk and Resilience focuses on three main themes What is the likelihood of such young adults developing drinking problems themselves What is the likelihood of them becoming parents with drinking problems? What is the likelihood of them becoming problem drinkers themselves? Adult Drug and Alcohol Problems, Children's Needs, Second Edition Joy Barlow, Di Hart, Jane Powell, 2016-07-21 Parental drug use can cause serious harm to children Adult Drug and Alcohol Problems Children's Needs supports practitioners in their work with families where parental drug use leads to concerns about children's welfare The training resource contains summaries of the key messages for practitioners tools and tips to support effective practice training and development activities practice examples from around the UK This second edition has an increased focus on alcohol misuse and reflects recent changes to both policy and practice The book will be useful for all individuals and agencies involved with families where parents are struggling with substance abuse including children's social workers substance misuse workers primary care and school staff criminal justice agencies obstetric and paediatric teams substitute carers and a range of voluntary and community services Parental Substance Misuse and Child Welfare Brynna Kroll, Andy Taylor, 2003 Focusing on the needs of children of substance misusing parents and the dilemmas faced by professionals working with them this comprehensive book brings together for the first time theoretical and practice issues for all those involved with the crossover between responses to drug and alcohol problems and child welfare Describing the effects of substance misuse on good enough parenting and attachment and taking into account theories about substance use the authors analyse the issues facing children including the impact on psychological and emotional development Emphasising the importance of developing holistic approaches involving both child care and drug and alcohol agencies as well as families this book presents a practical model for risk assessment and intervention that balances the competing needs of parents and their children It is an essential resource for all those working or training to work in the fields of child welfare substance misuse health education and criminal justice The Treatment of Drinking Problems Griffith Edwards, E. Jane Marshall, Christopher C. H.
