Risking Change Endings And Beginnings:

Risking Change William F. Sturmer, 1987-01-01 Women's Resources Morgan Grey, 1991 Creative Teaching and Learning Marilyn Fryer, 1996 This book provides a comprehensive account of teaching for creativity. It is based on the views of over one thousand teachers and further education lecturers in the United Kingdom working in a wide range of subject areas with young people from 5 to 18x years about creativity development and its relation to everyday classroom life. It is set in the context of the most relevant research on which the author, a qualified teacher, lecturer and psychologist, offers her individual perspective. Suggestions for future educational practice and creativity research are offered. The book explores what is involved in creativity, how this can be assessed and how to recognize creative behaviour and understand the creative process. The teachers and lecturers' views on every aspect of developing creativity are included together with practical guidelines for developing appropriate problem solving skills. Attention is drawn to the landmark work of key creativity development practitioners. The author argues that creativity and innovation need to be taken as seriously in education as in successful modern organizations to enable young people to deal effectively with the accelerating rate of technological, social and economic change.

Lessons from the Crossroads Ed Poole, 2007-06 Lessons from the Crossroads is full of stories and tales Ed has heard from others, tales that are now part of his life. The story of any one of us is in part the story of all of us. By telling the story of his experiences of reclaiming his authentic path, Ed inspires his readers as they discover humor, joy, laughter, personal meaning in their own lives, some sadness but most of all a sense of hope, love, forgiveness and personal excitement for the times their lessons are learned from their own crossroads experiences. While reading this book, you will become aware of the changes Ed experienced in his life, which will provide insight into the many changes you have created in yours as your journey led you to your different crossroads. Ed shares his feeling about many of his struggles, concepts and relationships as he shares his insights throughout. Lessons from the Crossroads. Ed also has the unique ability to share his growth from the beginning of this manuscript to the end, and you will rejoice in his transformation as well as receive inspiration and courage to continue yours. It is the joy of sharing these stories as you write your own that will create a heartfelt connection to Ed and his wisdom for years to come.

Calling Caroline A. Westerhoff, 2004-02 Through the art of storytelling, this book shows readers ways to live out the ministry and calling of our baptismal promises. This book can be used by individuals who wish to reexamine their own baptismal promises and the ministry that has emerged or could emerge through baptism. Foreword and study guide by John Westerhoff.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 Balancing Acts Hazel Johns, 2002-09-11 This book examines the philosophy and constructs of counselling training and the means by which students and trainers manage the complex demands placed upon them during the training process. The three main sections of the book explore key aspects of being trainers, the pressures and stresses involved, issues of gender and power, the complexities of co-training elements of training, academic and voluntary settings, negotiated and reflective learning.

assessment issues arising from the functions of groups experiences of being trainees first hand accounts from practitioners of the challenges they faced in their training The counsellors trainers and supervisors who share their research and experience as reflective practitioners provide a clear analysis of the balancing act involved in any adult learning Managing Change Todd Jick,1993 Laura Barbara L. Estrin,1994-12-15 How do men imagine women In the poetry of Petrarch and his English successors Wyatt Donne and Marvell the male poet persistently imagines pursuing a woman Laura whom he pursues even as she continues to deny his affections Critics have long held that in objectifying Laura these male authored texts deny the imaginative intellectual and physical life of the woman they idealize In Laura Barbara L Estrin counters this traditional view by focusing not on the generative powers of the male poet but on the subjectivity of the imagined woman and the imaginative space of the poems she occupies Through close readings of the Rime sparse and the works of Wyatt Donne and Marvell Estrin uncovers three Lauras Laura Daphne who denies sexuality Laura Eve who returns the poet s love and Laura Mercury who reinvents her own life Estrin claims that in these three guises Laura subverts both genre and gender thereby introducing multiple desires into the many layers of the poems Drawing upon genre and gender theories advanced by Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Judith Butler to situate female desire in the poem s framework Estrin shows how genre and gender in the Petrarchan tradition work together to undermine the stability of these very concepts Estrin s Laura constitutes a fundamental reconceptualization of the Petrarchan tradition and contributes greatly to the postmodern reassessment of the Renaissance period In its descriptions of how early modern poets formulate questions about sexuality society and poetry Laura will appeal to scholars of the English and Italian Renaissance of gender studies and of literary criticism and theory generally Advanced Nursing Practice Ann B.
