

Illustration by Deborah LeSueur

*I was born at the beginning of the sweetest and bloodiest century in human history in a white square parlor house in the corn belt, of two physically beautiful people who had come west through the Indian and the Lincoln country, creating the new life of the American by enormous and rugged and gay meetings with the Dutch, the Indian, the Irish, being preachers, abolitionists, apostles, radical lawyers on the Lincoln, Illinois front.
Disasters and democrats and radicals through five generations.
And the young strangers keep coming on. Seven grandchildren old and new grandchildren fling out, feel out the new strength.
Klagen for 74. Survival is a form of resistance.*
