Seeing Ourselves is the only reader that systematically weaves together three types of articles classic contemporary and cross cultural Classic articles will provide you with sociological statements of recognized importance and lasting significance Contemporary articles focus on current sociological issues controversies and applications They will show you the real world of sociologists at work and demonstrate the importance of on going research Cross cultural articles cast sociological insights about the world s striking cultural diversity Together these articles offer the most comprehensive coverage of any sociology reader American Indian Higher Educational Experiences Terry E. Huffman, 2008 American Indian Higher Educational Experiences examines the multiple ways sixty nine American Indian college students construct and use their ethnic identity while enrolled in a predominantly non Indian university Although their cultural backgrounds and orientations differ widely for all of these sixty nine students there exists a profound connection between how they view their personal ethnicity and how they interpret their experiences in academia Youth Culture, Education and Resistance , 2010-01-01 Youth Culture Education and Resistance Subverting the Commercial Ordering of Life is a ground breaking collection of essays that illustrate how youth culture has the potential to build solidarity amongst teachers activists scholars and practitioners for the purposes of confronting the dominant ideological doctrine influencing life at today s historical juncture emblemized through neoliberalism as well as building a society free from oppressive social formations Several leading international scholars and educators provide empirically and theoretically rich portraits of youth challenging the commercialized status quo inside and outside K 12 classrooms They also illustrate how cultural manifestations of youth speak directly against the social actors who continually vilify youth as the source of their own marginalization and the world s suffering and misery The Assessment Debate Valerie J. Janesick, 2001-11-14 An authoritative reference on one of education s hottest topics describing how the latest testing and assessment tools can be used to help improve student performance In this comprehensive review of the wealth of techniques by which students can be assessed Valerie J Janesick points out that the politics of schooling often gets in the way of student progress High stakes standardized testing is frequently based on poorly constructed unfair tests that encourage teaching to the test which actually impedes educational goals Authentic testing relies more on essays and writing samples performances demonstrations and role plays Although it is fairer and provides a measure of student growth and progress it requires more effort by teachers who also require extra training Besides discussing authentic assessment in detail The Assessment Debate includes a chronology an annotated directory of organizations supporting performance assessment a list of state coordinators for testing reform and state by state report cards

The Model Black Barbara Banda, 2022-06-27 This book is for anyone who wants to understand what being more inclusive at work means especially as it relates to black leaders It is intended for those people who are saying I don t know where to start I don t know what to do and I don t know what to say when understanding and talking about race at work Based on candid interviews with 30 successful black leaders it peels away the multifaceted layers of black British leaders in organisations to offer a new way of thinking about the black British experience This book provides the insights and ideas required to have positive conversations about race at work and to create work environments where black leaders can thrive In identifying the attributes and behaviours that successful black leaders have in common this book offers new ways of thinking about black people at work that help to further inclusion It shines a light on the daily reality of being a black leader in the workplace providing an alternative entry point for conversations around inclusion and explores what individuals and organisations can do to increase inclusion in the workplace Through first hand stories this book explores the challenges compromises struggles and successes that black people encounter and the range of strategies they employ to achieve success as they navigate the white workplace It is essential reading for business leaders in the private public and third sector human resources professionals students anyone teaching or mentoring black students or leaders and everyone interested in understanding race and furthering inclusion in the workplace

The Gendered Transaction of Whiteness Tenisha L. Tevis,Naomi W. Nishi,Mara Lee Grayson,2023-12-29 This book considers the causes and effects of an education field that remains white and gendered and critically examines how the race gendered power afforded to white women in educational spaces is transacted through instructional practices and interpersonal interactions White women occupy a complex position in society within systems of white supremacy and patriarchy participating as both oppressors and oppressed Emphasizing the consequences of whiteness for educational professionals and students of all racial identities the chapters in this book offer strategies for identifying and moving beyond the gendered transaction of whiteness including what white women can do instead and how all educators can work toward transformative antiracist education

Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church Dr. L. Vega-Sanabria,2023-05-22 After a teaching career of more than thirty years having taught across all grade levels and a broad range of subject areas Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective is a product of an encompassing ministry experience in the local church for both Spanish speaking and English speaking congregations as a teacher deacon and pianist a research based study with a pragmatic and practical view on the needs of one of the most unrecognized and misunderstood populations those of the inmate believers The Gospel message is clear and the members of the body of Christ have a responsibility to encourage one another and build each other up 1 Thessalonians 5 11 NIV The message of our Lord Jesus Christ is as real today as it was centuries ago I tell you open your eyes and look at the fields They are ripe for harvest John 4 35 NIV Believer inmates are members of the body of Christ their conversions are real their transformations are evident and their faith is strong Yet they too need the support of other members of the body of Christ for the Holy Spirit works through each member as he or she is gifted in order to address and attend to the unique needs of the incarcerated believer inmates Hear their silent cries as they are revealed in the Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective The Gospel of John states the reason Jesus visited Samaria Now he had to go through Samaria John 4 4 NIV And in NKJV it states He needed to go through Samaria For Jesus it was a need Jesus knew the importance of reaching out to those who were marginalized who were ostracized and who were highly criticized and judged They had been abandoned but Jesus had other plans Later he met the Samaritan woman and through her her village and her town received the Good News about the Messiah Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman s testimony John 4 39 NIV His own disciples were blind to this need they were subject to the day s misconceptions and misinterpretations and biases Later Jesus pronounces one of the most significant statements of the Gospel message I tell you open your eyes and look at the fields They are ripe for harvest John 4 35 NIV Friendship and Fellowship in the Local Church a 21st Century Perspective is a call to reach a group of people that have been abandoned and rejected to address their needs spiritual social emotional and psychological It is like Jesus said A field ripe for the harvest It is an eye opener a pioneer research study addressing the needs of one of the most deserted and neglected populations considering it covers a topic difficult to discuss and is of much controversy Paul said Remember my chains Colossians 4 18 NIV When Jesus was accused of associating with those that were outcasts his reply was For I have not come to call the righteous but sinners Matthew 9 13 NIV

Postcolonial Surveillance Anouk Madörin, 2022-09-08 Postcolonial Surveillance investigates the long history of the European border regime focusing on the colonial forerunners of today s border technologies The book takes a longue dur e perspective to uncover how Europe s colonial history continues to shape the high tech political present and has morphed into EU border migration policies border security and surveillance apparatuses It exposes the racial hierarchies and power relations that form these systems and highlights key moments when the past and present interact and collide such as in panoptic surveillance biopolitical registers biometric sorting and deterrent media infrastructure The technological genealogies assembled in this book reveal the unacknowledged histories that had to be rejected for the seemingly clean unbiased and neutral technologies to emerge as such
