Tomlinson, 2012-04-30 The following poems are prayers and songs Except for Cuba Errante which is a plea to the Mother of God to intercede for the difficult plight of Cubans both at home and abroad these songs are meditations based on biblical passages and themes I call them poetic icons because like the ancient pictorial icons of our Judeo Christian heritage the intent of these poems is also first to focus the attention of the reader into the scene that is being depicted in order to see the presence of God at work in that particular scene and in its characters second the intent is to help readers catch a glimpse of the divine presence and warmth that illuminates each particular scene Third as is the case with sacred pictorial icons it is also the intent of these poems to help readers in the present time identify with the struggles of those ancient biblical characters and with the way the Spirit of God is still at work now in each of the readers that contemplate these scenes I was inspired to write some of these poems in English others in Spanish In some cases I made the effort to make the poems available in both languages Thank you for your patience with the bilingual nature of this collection Is there music to these songs Yes and it is our hope to make it available to you in an ensuing publication Thank you again

García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism David F. Richter, 2014-10-15 Garc a Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism The Aesthetics of Anguish examines the variations of surrealism and surrealist theories in the Spanish context studied through the poetry drama and drawings of Federico Garc a Lorca 1898 1936 In contrast to the idealist and subconscious tenets espoused by surrealist leader Andr Breton which focus on the marvelous automatic creative processes and sublimated depictions of reality Lorca's surrealist impulse follows a trajectory more in line with the theories of French intellectuals such as Georges Bataille 1897 1962 who was expelled from Breton's authoritative group Bataille critiques the lofty goals and ideals of Bretonian surrealism in the pages of the cultural and anthropological review Documents 1929 1930 in terms of a dissident surrealist ethno poetics This brand of the surreal underscores the prevalence of the bleak or darker aspects of reality crisis primitive sacrifice the death drive and the violent representation of existence portrayed through formless base matter such as blood excrement and fragmented bodies The present study demonstrates that Bataille's theoretical and poetic expositions including those dealing with l informe the formless and the somber emptiness of the void engage the trauma and anxiety of surrealist expression in Spain particularly with reference to the anguish desire and death that figure so prominently in Spanish texts of the 1920s and 1930s often qualified as surrealist Drawing extensively on the theoretical cultural and poetic texts of the period Garc a Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism offers the first book length consideration of Bataille s thinking within the Spanish context examined through the work of Lorca a singular proponent of what is here referred to as a dissident Spanish surrealism By reading Lorca s surrealist texts including Poetaen Nueva York Viaje a la luna and El p blico through the Bataillean lens this volume both amplifies our understanding of the poetry and drama of one of the most important Spanish writers of the twentieth century and expands our perspective of what surrealism in Spain means
