Taming the Sahara Andrew Borowiec,2003-08-30 Borowiec surveys North African history and current efforts to halt the movement of the Sahara into surrounding countries He shows how efforts in Tunisia are making headway against this ecological disaster which confronts not only North Africa but Southern Europe and possibly the world in general Veteran North African observer Andrew Borowiec surveys the history of the countries surrounding the Sahara showing that Tunisia is the only country actively resisting the encroachment Using onsite visits interviews and an examination of government records and newspaper accounts he examines how Tunisians are pursuing a bold approach to the problem He shows how Tunisia a small poor but ambitious country is taming the world s largest desert by erecting barriers against sandstorms controlling urbanization experimenting with farming settling nomads and successfully exploiting the desert as a major tourist attraction Their efforts illustrate that there are ways to fight a major ecological disaster that demands serious attention across the globe To many Sahara is a magic word a sea of sand The desert has always fascinated explorers geographers environmentalists and novelists who turned to it for inspiration and adventure Yet the Sahara poses an increasing challenge to humanity Lakes that once dotted parts of the desert are drying up such as Lake Chad the continent s fourth largest lake which has shrunk by 92 percent As oases and grazing areas are abandoned the region s population loses its livelihood and chances for survival resulting in social and political upheaval The Sahara s encroachment is a disaster for large portions of Africa but it is also affecting Europe and perhaps the world in general Windblown Saharan sand reaches Rome Athens Spain France and Turkey and the resultant climatic and agricultural changes are only beginning to be studied and feared With the East Surrey's in Tunisia, Sicily and Italy, 1942-1945 Bryn Evans,2012-12-19 The East Surreys were in near continuous action from November 1942 when they landed in North Africa Operation TORCH through to May 1945 Armistice By that time they had cleared the Germans from Tunisia taken part in Operation HUSKY the Sicily invasion TORCH and fought up through Italy as far as River Po Trained as mountain troops the East Surreys saw bitter action in the Atlas Mountains on the slopes of Mount Etna and Monte Cassino and in the unforgiving hills and valleys of the Apennines They were called upon to cross many rivers often opposed by a determined enemy culminating in the River Po and its huge exposed and waterlogged valley Veterans stories illustrate the horrendous nature of the East Surreys task whether in set piece formation battles or patrol actions Especially interesting is the part played by Lieutenant John Woodhouse who commanded the Surreys Battle Patrol His experiences enable this fine officer to revolutionize SAS training and tactics in the 1950s and 1960s in Malaya and Africa and he is credited with revitalizing the SAS when in grave danger of being disbanded This story of the East Surreys shows how a single battalion can make a huge difference It also gives the reader a better understanding of the campaigns involved Tunisia Georgie Anne Geyer,2003 Journalist lauds post colonial economic success and political placidity The Decisive Campaigns of the Desert Air Force, 1942-1945 Bryn Evans, 2014-04-30

 Absorbing this is an excellent account of air operations and tactics of the air battles in North Africa the Mediterranean and Italy Firetrench Compared to the RAF s Fighter and Bomber Commands the Desert Air Force DAF is far less well known yet its achievements were spectacular DAF led the way in North Africa and Italy in pioneering new tactics in close Army Air Force cooperation on the battlefield DAF and Allied air forces gave Allied armies in North Africa and Italy a decisive cutting edge While the Axis forces used the many rivers and mountains of Tunisia and Italy to slow the Allies advance DAF was there to provide that extra mobile firepower the artillery from the sky They were the first multinational air force and the first to introduce air controllers in the front lines of the battlefield With first hand accounts by veteran airmen from Britain Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa and the USA this book tells the previously untold story of how the DAF was the most decisive single factor in winning the three battles of El Alamein and victory in the North Africa and Italy campaigns Yorkshire Evening Post A most welcome addition to the historiography of the air aspects of the war in North Africa and the wider Mediterranean it will have considerable appeal to a wide ranging readership but especially those interested in the tactical detail and personal experiences of the airmen involved in the various campaigns British Journal for Military History
