Worton,1992 Deleuze and Religion Mary Bryden,2002-01-04 Despite the ever expanding body of Deleuzian scholarship single volume has explored the religious dimensions of Deleuze's writing Now Mary Bryden has assembled a team of international scholars to do just that Their essays illustrate the ways in which Deleuzian thought is antithetical to religious debate as well as the ways in which it contributes to those debates This volume will be invaluable for researchers teachers and students of theology philosophy critical theory cultural studies and literary criticism as well as to students of French who read Deleuze's work in its original language Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari François Dosse,2011 In May 1968 Gilles

Deleuze was an established philosopher teaching at the innovative Vincennes University just outside of Paris Felix Guattari was a political militant and director of an unusual psychiatric clinic at La Borde Their meeting was unlikely and the two were introduced in an arranged encounter of epic consequence From that moment on Deleuze and Guattari engaged in a surprising productive partnership collaborating on several groundbreaking works including Anti Oedipus What Is Philosophy and A Thousand Plateaus François Dosse a prominent French intellectual examines the prolific if improbable relationship between two men of distinct and differing sensibilities Drawing on unpublished archives and hundreds of personal interviews Dosse elucidates a collaboration that lasted more than two decades underscoring the role that family and history particularly the turbulence of May 1968 played in their monumental work He also takes the measure of Deleuze and Guattari's posthumous fortunes and weighs the impact of their thought within intellectual academic and professional circles The

Postmodern Mythology of Michel Tournier Melissa Panek,2012-03-15 Michel Tournier defines the supreme mission of a writer to be the creation of a mythology which allows for interaction with his readers who seem to be losing their critical faculties in our contemporary postmodern world dominated by consumption and dizzying technological advances Our contemporary society has changed due to the end of the modern era with its reigning ideologies Collapsing after the atrocities of the Second World War Modernity and the artistic and literary reactions referred to as modernism have likewise been transformed Myth continues to represent the collectivity of human existence yet in the short stories and novels of Michel Tournier myth represents the collapse of the all encompassing ideologies inherent to the Modern era The grand narratives of Modernity such as Christianity and Man's reason have been deconstructed in the postmodern era The mythology of Michel Tournier expresses these trends towards the dissolution of Modernity and creates individual mini narratives which emphasize the particularity of individual existence Tournier takes established mythical models rooted in Christianity fables and legends of Western Civilization and re-contextualizes them Through a semiotic reworking of core binary pairs of a myth Tournier creates a third order level of representation which modifies the mythical model The works of le Roi des Aulnes Gilles et Jeanne and Vendredi are illustrious of this third order level of signification According to Ferdinand de Saussure Roland Barthes and Claude L vi Strauss the structural make up of myth transforms established meanings according to the dominant cultural code Barthes semiological study of myth reveals the levels of representation through which myth creates meaning Myth builds upon the denotative first order level of language and through a connotative process creates a second order level This connotative process does not end on this second order for in the writings of Tournier this semiological process is continued to a third order which re contextualizes the myth again Tournier adapts myth to the unique traits of the postmodern era including deconstruction and playfulness by allowing the reader to provide the context of the story As such we the reader take the place as author of our own individual mythology

Vogl,2003 Picturing the Maghreb critiques photographic and verbal representations with a focus on four of the most prominent French language writers of recent years Michel Tournier J M G Le Cl zio Tahar Ben Jelloun and Le la Sebbar Their activist writing reframes a picture of Maghreb produced by two centuries of Orientalist misrepresentation The book explores photography as a metaphor for other sorts of representation and examines the cultural impact of actual photographs
