Ricci,2019-08-26 New Voices of Muslim North African Migrants in Europe captures the experience in writing of a fast growing number of individuals belonging to migrant communities in Europe The book follows attempts to transform postcolonial literary studies into a comparative translingual and supranational project Cristi n H Ricci frames Moroccan literature written in European languages within the ampler context of borderland studies The author addresses the realm of a literature that has been practically absent from the field of postcolonial literary studies i e Neerlandophone or Gay Muslim literature The book also converses with other minor literatures and theories from Sub Saharan Africa as well as Asians and Latino as in the Americas that combine histories of colonization labor migration and enforced exile Exquisite Corpse ,1994 The Child in Film Karen Lury,2010-03-30 Ghastly and ghostly children dirty little white girls the child as witness and as victim have always played an important part in the history of cinema as have child performers themselves In exploring the disruptive power of the child in films made for an adult audience across popular films including Taxi Driver and Japanese horror and art house productions like Mirror and Pan s Labyrinth Karen Lury investigates why the figure of the child has such a significant impact on the visual aspects and storytelling potential of cinema Lury s main argument is that the child as a liminal yet powerful agent has allowed filmmakers to play adventurously with cinema's formal conventions with far reaching consequences. In particular she reveals how a child's relationship to time allows it to disturb and question conventional master narratives. She explores too the investment in the child actor and expression of child sexuality as well as how confining and conservative existing assumptions can be in terms of commonly held beliefs as to who children really are.
