Our Thang Several Poems Several Drawings:

Our Thang Ted Joans, 2001 Our Thang presents the extraordinary jazz poems of the legendary Ted Joans alongside the surrealist drawings of Laura Corsiglia. The poems are characterized by black consciousness, strong rhythms, and a musical sensibility closely linked to blues and avant garde jazz. Black Surrealist Steven Belletto, 2025-05-29 Black Surrealist Poet Collage artist Jazz trumpeter Painter Member of the Beat Generation Life long wanderer Pan Africanist Black Power agitator Author of his own poem life Ted Joans 1928-2003 was all of these things and yet none of these labels adequately capture the beauty and complexity of his life and work. The proportions of Ted Joans's life are legendary. Born in Cairo, Illinois in 1928 as a young man, he distinguished himself as a Surrealist painter. In the early 1950s, he moved to New York's Greenwich Village where he opened the first Black-owned art gallery in the city, developed new styles of painting, and began reading his poetry in coffeehouses just as the Beat Generation was coalescing. A well-known raconteur and bon vivant on the Village scene, he threw elaborate parties, art events that prefigured the Happenings of the later 1950s, exhibited his jazz action paintings, and published poetry and collage books to acclaim. But at the height of his success, Joans left the States for Europe and Africa and set up bases of operation in places such as Paris, Copenhagen, Tangier, and Timbuktu. He would spend the subsequent decades in constant movement around the globe, an itinerant poet, interdisciplinary artist, and self-styled Surrealist griot who was especially attuned to the magnetic power of chance encounters. He published some 40 books and booklets and wrote much more that is still unpublished, including novels, autobiographies, and a comprehensive guide to Africa, all the while cultivating what he thought of as his greatest artwork: his own poem life. Drawing on interviews and deep archival research, including discussions of Joans's vast body of unpublished and previously unseen work, Black Surrealist explores how he swam in streams of literary and artistic thought seldom discussed together: Surrealism, the Beats, Négritude, and Black Power, among them, while always remaining a true original. Ted Joans's poem life and body of work are unlike any other in the 20th Century, and Black Surrealist, illustrated with over 70 images many never before published, is the first book to reckon with this singularly important poet-artist and to show how and why his creative spirit lives on. Black, Brown, & Beige Franklin Rosemont, Robin D.G. Kelley, 2009-12-07 This collection documents the extensive participation of people of African descent in the international surrealist movement over the past 75 years. Directions Home George Elliott Clarke, 2012-09-26 The latest work from pioneering scholar George Elliott Clarke, Directions Home, is the most comprehensive analysis of African Canadian texts and writers to date. Building on the discoveries of his critically acclaimed Odysseys Home, Clarke passionately analyses the beautiful complexities and haunting conundrums of this important body of literature. Directions Home explores the trajectories and tendencies of African Canadian literature within the Canadian canon and the socio-cultural traditions of the African Diaspora. Clarke showcases the importance of little-known texts, including church histories and slave narratives, and offers studies of autobiography, crime and punishment, jazz poetics, and musical composition. The collection also includes studies of significant contemporary writers such as George Boyd and Dionne Brand and trailblazing African Canadian intellectuals like A B Walker and Anna Minerva Henderson With its national bilingual and historical perspectives Directions Home is an essential guide to African Canadian literature Beat Culture William T.
