Outpourings Of An Art Loving Friar:

Outpourings of an Art-loving Friar Wilhelm Heinrich Wackenroder, Ludwig Tieck, 1975 Outpourings of an Art-loving Friar Wilhelm Heinrich Wackenroder, Ludwig Tieck, 1975 A Companion to Nineteenth-Century Art Michelle Facos, 2018-12-06 A comprehensive review of art in the first truly modern century A Companion to Nineteenth Century Art contains contributions from an international panel of noted experts to offer a broad overview of both national and transnational developments as well as new and innovative investigations of individual art works artists and issues The text puts to rest the skewed perception of nineteenth century art as primarily Paris centric by including major developments beyond the French borders The contributors present a more holistic and nuanced understanding of the art world during this first modern century In addition to highlighting particular national identities of artists A Companion to Nineteenth Century Art also puts the focus on other aspects of identity including individual ethnic gender and religious The text explores a wealth of relevant topics such as the challenges the artists faced how artists learned their craft and how they met clients the circumstances that affected artist s choices and the opportunities they encountered and where the public and critics experienced art This important text Offers a comprehensive review of nineteenth century art that covers the most pressing issues and significant artists of the era Covers a wealth of important topics such as ethnic and gender identity certain general trends in the nineteenth century an overview of the art market during the period and much more Presents novel and valuable insights into familiar works and their artists Written for students of art history and those studying the history of the nineteenth century A Companion to Nineteenth Century Art offers a comprehensive review of the first modern era art with contributions from noted experts in the field The Quest for Voice Lydia Goehr, 2002 Concentrating on the music politics and philosophy of Richard Wagner Lydia Goehr addresses some fundamental questions of German Romanticism Is all music musical Is music made less musical by the presence of words What is musical autonomy How do composers avoid censorship How are composers affected by exile Can music articulate a politics for the future What is the relation between music and philosophy German Romantic Literary Theory Ernst Behler, 1993-04-22 Professor Behler provides a view of the literary work and the artistic process developed in the German Romantic period Portrait of Beatrice Fabio Camilletti, 2019-03-30 The Portrait of Beatrice examines both Dante s and D G Rossetti s intellectual experiences in the light of a common concern about visibility Both render in different times and contexts something that resists clear representation be it the divine beauty of the angel women or the depiction of the painter s own interiority in a secularized age By analyzing Dante s Vita Nova alongside Rossetti s Hand and Soul and St Agnes of Intercession which inaugurates the Victorian genre of imaginary portrait tales this book examines how Dante and Rossetti explore the tension between word and image by creating imaginary portraits The imaginary portrait Dante s sketched angel appearing in the Vita Nova or the paintings evoked in Rossetti s narratives is not only a non-existent artwork it is an artwork whose existence lies elsewhere in the words alluding to its inexpressible quality At the same time thinking of Beatrice as an imaginary Lady enables us to move beyond the debate about her actual existence Rather it allows us to focus on her reality as a miracle made into flesh which language seeks incessantly to grasp Thus the intergenerational dialogue between Dante and Rossetti and between thirteenth and nineteenth centuries literature and painting Italy and England takes place between different media oscillating between representation and denial mimesis and difference concealment and performance From medieval Florence to Victorian London Beatrice s imaginary portrait touches upon the intertwining of desire poetry and art making in Western culture

Music and Transcendence Ferdia J. Stone-Davis,2016-03-03 Music and Transcendence explores the ways in which music relates to transcendence by bringing together the disciplines of musicology philosophy and theology thereby uncovering congruencies between them that have often been obscured Music has the capacity to take one outside of oneself and place one in relation to that which is other This other can be conceived in an absolute sense insofar as music can be thought to place the self in relation to a divine other beyond the human frame of existence However the other can equally well be conceived in an immanent or secular sense as music is a human activity that relates to other cultural practices Music here places the self in relation to other people and to the world more generally shaping how the world is understood without any reference to a God or gods The book examines how music has not only played a significant role in many philosophical and theological accounts of the nature of existence and the self but also provides a valuable resource for the creation of meaning on a day to day basis

The Romantic Idea of the Golden Age in Friedrich Schlegel's Philosophy of History Asko Nivala,2017-02-03 The nineteenth century Romantic understanding of history is often confused with the longing for the past Golden Age In this book the Golden Age is seen from a new angle by discussing it in the context of the works of Friedrich Schlegel who saw it not as bygone but to be produced in the future

Solitude ,2018-05-23 This book explores the spatial material and affective dimensions of solitude in the late medieval and early modern periods a hitherto largely neglected topic Its focus is on the dynamic qualities of space and place which are here understood as being shaped structured and imbued with meaning through both social and discursive solitary practices such as reading writing studying meditating and praying Individual chapters investigate the imageries and imaginaries of outdoor and indoor spaces and places associated with solitude and its practices and examine the ways in which the space of solitude was conceived of imagined and represented in the arts and in literature from about 1300 to about 1800 Contributors include Oskar B tschmann Carla Benzan Mette Birkedal Bruun Dominic E Delarue Karl A E Enenkel Christine G ttler Agn s Guiderdoni Christiane J Hessler Walter S Melion Rapha le Preisinger Bernd Roling Paul Smith Marie Theres Stauffer Arnold A Witte and Steffen Zierholz

Christian Scholarship in the Twenty-First Century Thomas M. Crisp,Steve L. Porter,Gregg Ten Elshof,2014-09-19 The Christian tradition provides a wealth of insight into perennial human questions about the shape of the good life human happiness virtue justice wealth and poverty spiritual growth and much else besides and Christian scholars can do great good by bringing that rich tradition into conversation with the broader culture But what is the nature and purpose of distinctively Christian scholarship and what does that imply for the life and calling of the Christian scholar What is it about Christian scholarship that makes it Christian Ten eminent scholars grapple with such questions in this volume They offer deep and thought provoking discussions of the habits and commitments of the Christian scholar the methodology and pedagogy of Christian scholarship the role of the Holy Spirit in education Christian approaches to art and literature and more CONTRIBUTORS Jonathan A Anderson Dariusz M Brycko Natasha Duquette M Elizabeth Lewis Hall George Hunsinger Paul K Moser Alvin Plantinga Craig J Slane Nicholas Wolterstorff Amos Yong
