The Museum Age in Austria-Hungary Matthew Rampley, Markian Prokopovych, Nóra Veszprémi, 2021-02-15 This important critical study of the history of public art museums in Austria Hungary explores their place in the wider history of European museums and collecting their role as public institutions and their involvement in the complex cultural politics of the Habsburg Empire Focusing on institutions in Vienna Cracow Prague Zagreb and Budapest The Museum Age in Austria Hungary traces the evolution of museum culture over the long nineteenth century from the 1784 installation of imperial art collections in the Belvedere Palace as a gallery open to the public to the dissolution of Austria Hungary after the First World War Drawing on source materials from across the empire the authors reveal how the rise of museums and display was connected to growing tensions between the efforts of Viennese authorities to promote a cosmopolitan and multinational social political and cultural identity on the one hand and on the other the rights of national groups and cultures to self expression They demonstrate the ways in which museum collecting policies practices of display and architecture engaged with these political agendas and how museums reflected and enabled shifting forms of civic identity emerging forms of professional practice the production of knowledge and the changing composition of the public sphere Original in its approach and sweeping in scope this fascinating study of the museum age of Austria Hungary will be welcomed by students and scholars interested in the cultural and art history of Central Europe

Male Bonds in Nineteenth-Century Art Thijs Dekeukeleire, Henk de Smaele, Marjan Sterckx, 2022-01-10 Masculinities in nineteenth century art through the lens of gender and queer history Male bonds were omnipresent in nineteenth century European artistic scenes impacting the creation presentation and reception of art in decisive ways Men s lives and careers bore the marks of their relations with other men Yet such male bonds are seldom acknowledged for what they are gendered and historically determined social constructs This volume shines a critical light on male homosociality in the arts of the long nineteenth century by combining art history with the insights of gender and queer history From this interdisciplinary perspective the contributing authors present case studies of men s relationships in a variety of contexts which range from the Hungarian Reform Age to the Belgian fin de siècle As a whole the book offers a historicizing survey of the male bonds that underpinned nineteenth century art and a thought provoking reflection on its theoretical and methodological implications
