Scrapbooking for the Time Impaired Kerry Arquette, Andrea Zocchi, 2007 It's a fast paced world out there and nobody knows it better than moms. With all their must dos, finding a moment to enjoy their scrapbooking can be a problem. Here's the solution: a book that speaks directly to these busy mothers, offering support, information, and really fabulous ideas for creating great scrapbook art. Women will love the narrator's voice: a mom of course that runs through the guide in the form of sticky notes and messages to herself. Honest and humorous, she represents the typical scrapper and with her readers can explore ideas for time management, discover scrapbooking inspiration in everyday objects, learn clever tips for journaling on the go, and see how technology can become their best friend. Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office

, 2003 The Jewish Youth, 1925 Samuel Johnson and the Theme of Hope T F Wharton, 1984-03-29 The Phenomenology of the Noema J.J. Drummond, Lester Embree, 1992-09-30 Philosophers contributing new ideas are commonly caught within a received philosophical vocabulary and will often coin new technical terms. Husserl understood himself as advancing a new theory of intentionality and he fashioned the new vocabulary of noesis and noema. But Husserl's own statements regarding the noema are ambiguous. Hence it is no surprise that controversy has ensued. The articles in this book elucidate and clarify the notion of the noema; the book includes articles which phenomenologically describe and analyze the noemata of various experiences as well as articles which undertake the metaphenomenological explication of the doctrine of the noema. These two enterprises cannot be isolated from one another. Any analysis of the noema of a particular type of experience will necessarily illustrate at least by instantiating the general notion of noema. And any metaphenomenological account of the noema itself will guide particular researches into the noemata of particular experiences. Studies on

Information Science and Tagore Partha Pratim Ray, 2018-01-01 Library is treasure house of knowledge. Library collects, organizes, and disseminates information/knowledge for mankind towards prosperity. The library science as a subject and librarian as a profession is based on a solid philosophical foundation. Information as an integral part of library has its application to society and other disciplines. The first segment of this book, Studies on Information Science, is devoted to philosophical foundation of library, attitude of primitive tribes towards information, application of different theories to identify core socio-economic choices, and to sketch a bibliometric portrait of genius like Satyajit Ray. The copyright of Rabindranath's works (Tagoreana) expired in 2001. The publishing monopoly of Visva Bharati is no more. Private publishers are now free to publish Tagoreana. The second segment, Tagoreana, discusses publicising scenarios before and after expiry of copyright and post-copyright publication of Tagorean fiction. An analytical study of paintings and drawings of Rabindranath and a bibliometric portrait taking into account all creative output of Rabindranath have also been incorporated. The Measurement of Pitch Intonation with the Tonoscope in Singing and Playing Carl Emil Seashore, 1926
