Pentecost Today The Biblical Basis For Understanding Revival:

Pentecost - Today? Iain Hamish Murray, 1998 The emphasis of this book is on the Holy Spirit's role in evangelism and revival It is not on the manifestation of the Spiritual Gifts Pentecost Today? Iain H. Murray, The Revival Study Bible William (Winkie) Pratney, Tamara S. Winslow, Steve Hill, 2010-08-12 The Revival Study Bible takes a close look at revivals that draw men to God's work in breathing new life into the Church This unique Bible covers rich Christian history spanning over 2 000 years of God's acts that center around revival missions and evangelism It also gives inspiring accounts of supernatural miraculous and prevailing acts of the Lord Emphasizing passion and action and not just data this dynamic Bible gives an international flavor drawn from active tested and fruitful ministries involved in ongoing awakening Andrew Fuller's Theology of Revival Ryan Rindels, 2021-01-21 Revival is the arguable heartbeat of evangelical Christianity Though a theologically diverse and globally diffused phenomenon evangelicalism originated in a distinctly Calvinistic milieu Many Puritans in the seventeenth century evangelicals before the revivals emphasized the work of the Holy Spirit including the importance of personal conversion Unlike theologically Arminian proponents of revival such as Charles G Finney many Puritans and early evangelicals believed and taught that the absolute sovereignty of God was compatible with human responsibility Calvinistic Baptists in the early eighteenth century who rejected this tension declined numerically yet a new generation of pastors led their denomination through this impasse Andrew Fuller 1754 1815 defended Reformed doctrine in the Particular Baptist tradition while emphasizing the importance of human response in his preaching writing and fundraising for the Baptist Missionary Society The fruit of Fuller's ministry included growth of churches in England conversions among people groups in the Global South and the preservation of Reformed theology in a challenging Enlightenment context Puritan Reformed Theology Joel R. G. Haykin, Ian Hugh Clary, 2016-02-19 When Jesus ascended to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God the Father He poured out His Holy Spirit at Pentecost This significant historical and redemptive event was not the last time Christ poured out His Spirit in redemptive history Mindful of these subsequent acts Pentecostal Outpourings presents historical research on revivals in the Reformed tradition during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Investigating the British Isles it observes the outpourings experienced among Welsh Calvinistic Methodists Irish Dissenters Calvinistic English Baptists and Scottish Presbyterians It then moves on to evaluate the revival instincts among Presbyterians Congregationalists Baptists and the Dutch Reformed in America May the knowledge of these outpourings of the Holy Spirit help us seek God earnestly to revive His Church once again Table of Contents Preface Steve Lawson I Revival in the British Isles 1 The Power of Heaven in the Word of Life Welsh Calvinistic Methodism and Revival Eifon Evans 2 Melting the Ice of a Long Winter Revival and Irish Dissent Ian Hugh Clary 3 The Lord Is Doing Great Things and Answering Prayer Everywhere The Revival of the Calvinistic Baptists in the Long Eighteenth Century Michael A G Haykin 4 Revival A Scottish Presbyterian Perspective Iain Campbell II Revival in America 5 Edwards's Revival Instinctive and Apologetic in American Presbyterianism Planted Grown and Faded Robert Davis Smart 6 The Glorious Work of God Revival among Congregationalists in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries Peter Beck 7 Baptist Revivals in America in the Eighteenth Century Tom Nettles 8 Dutch Reformed Church in America the 18th century Joel Beeke Rhythms of Revival Ian M Randall, 2010-09-01 Rhythms of Revival emphasises that there are times in the story of the church that are notable and invites us to consider the abiding lessons of one significant period of revival in the mid nineteenth century This book does not offer a formula for revival and there is a critique of undue concentration on the phenomena of revival Ian Randall's distinct focus is the major dynamics of a single period international revival movement The author draws on rich historical resources and offers some unique insights into revival rhythms the place of prayer the role of pastors the empowering of lay people the impact on young people and children the revitalizing of worship and the relationship of revival to social change

Theodorus Frelinghuysen's Evangelism Scott Maze, 2020-01-01 This book presents a thorough investigation of the evangelistic contributions of Theodorus Jacobus Frelinghuysen 1692 1747 8 within the context of the First Great Awakening In it Scott Maze identifies the theological foundations of Frelinghuysen's ministry surveys his key evangelistic endeavors and evaluates the effects these things had on the Great Awakening This book sheds light on a lesser known figure of the Great Awakening reveals the influence of the Dutch Further Reformation Nadere Reformatie in colonial North America and provides significant insights in terms of ministry contextualization for the contemporary student of evangelism Table of Contents 1 A Brief Biography 2 Theological Bases 3 Evangelistic Contributions 4 Catalyst to the First Great Awakening

A Charismatic Model of the Church David Y.T. Lee, 2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792 1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving's teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving's emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ centred and Spirit empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church

Great Southland Revival Kurt Mahlborg, Warwick Marsh, 2022-11-21 Discover Australia's Great Awakenings Australia is a nation forged in the furnace of revival Long forgotten Australia's Spirit filled history comes to life in Great Southland Revival Discover how the flame of Pentecost spread from the book of Acts all the way to the South Pacific Journey on convict ships and city trams to goldfields outback communities and far flung islands transformed by the gospel Most of all be inspired that God longs to revive the church sweep multitudes into His kingdom and renew our world once again A God-Sized Vision Collin Hansen, John D. Woodbridge, 2010-11-02 Can God stir revival by his Holy Spirit even in our culture today Do we really believe he can In a day of diminished expectations A God Sized Vision Revival Accounts That Stretch and Stir recounts global examples of prior revivals beginning with the Reformation and the Great Awakenings It continues with the Welsh and Azusa Street revivals and those that occurred simultaneously in Asia followed by the East Africa Revival of the 1930s More recent revivals in North America that instigated parachurch or evangelistic ministries like those of Billy Graham and the revivals in China particularly in Henan Province over the last forty years give further evidence of church renewal These stories enlarge our hearts expand our minds and empower our witness to the power of God at work in human history Christians with a deep evangelistic commitment who realize that there is more to church growth than field tested techniques will expand their vision by remembering God's vision as it has been revealed throughout history Hansen and Woodbridge mine these stories of renewal to suggest how to get ready for revival today Old Paths, New Power Daniel Henderson, 2016-05-13 From a recovering leadershipaholic Our best model is the first one After a long and sometimes trying ministry journey Daniel Henderson was relieved to discover what the apostles knew from the start When it comes to church ministry the main thing must stay the main thing The church was never built on sleek ministry models but on God's great power Daniel Henderson who leads a growing church revival ministry guides you through the essentials of sparking a spiritual renaissance Be a leader who walks with the Lord Develop a strong prayer culture in your life and ministry Preach with unction dependence and integrity Equip every saint for the work of the ministry Embrace the sufficiency of the gospel Our churches don't need fresh models and fancy things they need the Holy Spirit and He rains down when we pray and proclaim the word Read Old Paths New Power and follow God's master plan When the Lord Walked the Land Kenneth S. Jeffrey, 2007-03-02 Previous studies of revival have tended to approach these remarkable moments in history from either a strictly local or a sweeping national perspective In so doing they have dealt with either the detailed circumstances of a particular situation or the broader course of events These approaches however have given the incorrect impression that religious awakenings are uniform movements As a result revivals have been misunderstood as homogeneous campaigns This is the first study of the 1859 revival from a regional level in a comprehensive manner It examines this movement arguably the most significant and far reaching awakening in modern times as it appeared in the city of Aberdeen the rural hinterland of northeast Scotland and among the fishing villages and towns that stretch along the Moray Firth It reveals how far from being unvarying the 1859 revival was richly diverse It uncovers the important influence that local contexts brought to bear upon the timing and manifestation of this awakening Above all it has established the heterogeneous nature of simultaneous revival movements that appeared in the same vicinity The Deliberate Church Mark Dever, Paul Alexander, 2005-09-09 Dever and Alexander propose a model of complete reliance and submission to the Gospel when building a healthy church Great resource for pastors elders and others interested in the vitality of their church      Reformed Evangelicalism and the Search for a Usable Past Ian Hugh Clary, 2020-09-07 The question of how theology shapes a Christian historian's reading of the past has been debated thoroughly in various academic periodicals Should historians recognise the role of providence in their accounts of past events Should they sympathise with their subject's theology Can objectivity be lost due to theological bias And last but not least is there a compromise of faith if one writes natural instead of supernatural history Such questions are important for understanding the historian's profession Arnold Dallimore who trained and specialised in pastoral ministry in Canada wrote an influential biography of the revivalist George Whitefield as well as others on Charles and Susanna Wesley Edward Irving and Charles Spurgeon How did his Reformed theological perspective impact his historiography How does his work fit into larger historiographical debates concerning the nature of Christian history While other books look at Christian historiography using abstract and methodological approaches this book examines the subject precisely by looking at the life and work of an individual historian It does so by placing Dallimore in the context of being a minister in twentieth century Canada as well as his role in the development of Reformed Theology in the Anglosphere It also examines the quality of his various biographies focusing on key issues such as the nature of religious revival the problem of Christianity and slavery and the question of charismatic religious experience His study concludes by examining the relationship between the discipline and profession of church history and asking what is required for one to be considered a church historian      Making African Christianity Robert J. Houle, 2011-09-16 In Making African Christianity author Robert J Houle argues that Africans successfully naturalized Christianity This book examines the long history of the faith among colonial Zulu Christians known as amakholwa in what would become South Africa As it has become clear that Africans are not discarding Christianity a number of scholars have taken up the challenge of understanding why this is the case and how we got to this point Where others have focused on the economic and political potential of conversion this book argues that we need to understand what was embedded within the faith that Africans found so appealing Houle argues that translation did not end with the bible but extended to Christian theology which needed to be fully appropriated before the faith was secure on the continent For Zulu the religion was not a good fit until converts filled critical gaps in the faith such as how Christianity could account for the active and everyday presence of the ancestral spirits a problem that was true for African converts across the continent in slightly different ways This book offers fresh insight into the history behind the contemporary success of Christianity on the continent and will be welcomed by African historians those interested in the history of colonialism missions southern African and in particular Christianity      High Calvinists in Action Ian J. Shaw, 2003-02-06 This valuable contribution to the debate about the relation of religion to the modern city fills an important gap in the historiography of early nineteenth century religious life Although there is some evidence that strict doctrine led to a more restricted response to urban problems extensive local and personal variations mean that simple generalizations should be avoided Ian J Shaw argues against earlier prejudiced views and shows that high Calvinists played a vigorous and successful part in the response of early nineteenth century churches to the process of urbanization The study includes six substantial case studies of ministers and their churches in Manchester and London Four high Calvinist ministers are considered with two studies of ministers holding to an evangelical Calvinist doctrine also included to provide instructive contrasts Detailed social analysis of the congregations is based upon extensive use of manuscript and printed sources sermons and local and denominational press Making Evangelical History Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2019-04-08 This volume makes a significant contribution to the history of ecclesiastical histories with a fresh analysis of historians of evangelicalism from the eighteenth century to the present It explores the ways in which their scholarly methods and theological agendas shaped their writings Each chapter presents a case study in evangelical historiography Some of the historians and biographers examined here were ministers and missionaries while others were university scholars They are drawn from Anglican Baptist Congregationalist Methodist Presbyterian Fundamentalist and Pentecostal denominations Their histories cover not only transatlantic evangelicalism but also the spread of the movement across China Africa and indeed the whole globe Some wrote for a popular Christian readership emphasising edification and evangelical hagiography others have produced weighty monographs for the academy These case studies shed light on the way the discipline has developed and also the heated controversies over whether one approach to evangelical history is more legitimate than the rest As a result this book will be of considerable interest to historians of religion
