People And Home:

Care at Home for People Living with Dementia Christine Ceci, Mary Ellen Purkis, 2023-03-14 With dementia care shifting from institutional to home settings this book considers the intersections of formal health and social care strategies and family experiences

The People's Home? Michael Harloe, 2011-08-15 The People's Home is a magisterial examination of the development of social rented housing over the last hundred years in six advanced capitalist countries Britain France Germany the Netherlands Denmark and the USA

Life at Home for People with a Dementia Ruth Bartlett, Tula Brannelly, 2018-06-14 Life at Home for People with a Dementia provides an evidence based and readable account of improving life at home for people with a dementia and their families There are estimated to be 47 million people with a dementia worldwide the majority of whom will live or want to live in their own home Yet there is a major shortcoming in available knowledge on what life is like for people with a dementia living at home Most research focuses on care in hospitals or care homes and takes a medical perspective This book bridges this gap in knowledge by providing a comprehensive and critical overview of the best available evidence on enabling people with a dementia to live well at home from the viewpoint of those living with the condition and in the context of global policy drivers on ageing and health as well as technological advances The book includes chapters on citizenships that is the diversity of people living with a dementia enabling life at home rethinking self management the ethics and care of people with a dementia at home technological care and citizenship and sharing responsibilities It concludes with a care manifesto in which we set out a vision for improving life at home for people with a dementia that covers the areas of professional practice education and care research By covering a wide range of interrelated topics to advance understanding and practice as to how people with a dementia from diverse backgrounds can be supported to live well at home this book provides a synthesised critical and readable understanding of the complexities and risks involved

Supporting People with Dementia at Home David Challis, Caroline Sutcliffe, Jane Hughes, Richard von Abendorff, Pamela Brown, John Chesterman, 2016-04-01 Supporting People with Dementia at Home details a groundbreaking study of an intensive care management scheme designed for older people with dementia that are at risk of entry into residential care The authors use a quasi experimental approach to compare how the individuals on the mental health team in one community were matched to a similar community without the service They analyze the evidence focusing on the eventual placement of the individual suffering the quality of care they receive and also the needs of their carers This book offers valuable evidence about the factors which can maximize the independence and well being of older people with dementia from the perspective of older people and their carers For those who commission services it is highly relevant to service models for the National Dementia Strategy in England

Providing Support at Home for Children and Young People who have Complex Health Needs Jaqueline Hewitt-Taylor, 2008-07-14 Providing Support at Home for Children and Young People who have Complex Health Needs discusses elements of providing support in the home which influence the quality of provision

This includes the rationale for providing support at home the child being central to the provision of support taking into account the needs of the whole family working closely with parents working in the family home choices and rights supporting adolescents team working ethical issues political and organisational issues Case studies are used to illustrate the points raised

Perspectives on Care at Home for Older People Christine Ceci, Kristín Björnsdóttir, Mary Ellen Purkis, 2013-03-01 Demographic and epidemiological changes mean that frail older people have come to be seen as an expensive problem for health care systems The challenge for professionals and policy makers is to find ways to respond to the coming crisis by delivering high quality care in the home This collection offers a critical analysis of home care policy and practice It focuses on how high quality care is provided and the practices and policies that support this It offers case studies both policy and practice oriented empirical studies from countries that share a basic orientation to social welfare Canada Denmark Finland Iceland Sweden and the United Kingdom The nine chapters set out a critical agenda for the development of good practices in challenging times This book is essential reading for students practitioners and researchers who wish to understand diverse problems in care provision for frail older persons and the complexities of policy responses in different health and social care contexts

Assessing Physically Disabled People At Home Kathleen Maczka, 2013-12-20 In the current era of cost awareness and the pressure to free hospital beds as rapidly as possible coupled with the move towards community care there is increasing emphasis on returning and maintaining disabled people in the community Often many health and welfare workers are involved in this process Occupational therapists however have a particular role to play Their training is such that they are able to assess and treat the physical psychological and social aspects of a disabling condition This enables them to help disabled people to achieve their maximum ability in the environment in which they live Whether the occupational therapist is hospital or community based employed by the health or social service department her caseload is often vast The occupational therapist may specialize in a particular age group or disability but it is more likely that she will have to work with a wide age range from the very young to the very old Assessment of needs and the subsequent provision of equipment and adaptations is the greater part of the OT's job Other aspects include counselling the disabled person and his family and planning future intervention must often however reluctantly be given a low priority In spite of staff shortages occupational therapists are frequently called on to provide the client and other groups of workers with advice and information on all aspects of living with any disability

People, Care and Work in the Home Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, Antonio Argandoña, 2020-05-18 Introducing novel theoretical empirical and practical investigations with case studies from UK Europe South America and South East Asia the book offers a novel global outlook on how contemporary homes are facing genuine challenges from operational economic spatial social and wellbeing perspectives The changing demographics of our modern society have inevitably impacted the dynamics and relationships within the home from being personal and private to that of multiple work relationships domestic work care for older people or supporting people with special needs Whilst the home is a concept universally experienced permeating every aspect of our lives it remains an entity whose influence on health and wellbeing is poorly understood This book brings together 17 different contributions from scholars researchers and practitioners from different disciplinary and professional backgrounds including three feature articles by leading figures such as Lord Best and Baroness Hollins The chapters are organised within three parts that look at the triangle of people work care in the home At a time when homes are increasingly becoming local hubs for care and wellbeing this volume is a critical and useful addition to current literature in the social sciences humanities economics culture care and wellbeing in the domestic sphere

Safeguarding Young People Beyond the Family Home Carlene Firmin,Michelle Lefevre,Nathalie Huegler,Delphine Peace,2022-10-13 During adolescence young people are exposed to a range of harms and risks beyond their family homes and this book assesses social care organisations safeguarding responses across 10 countries

Quality at Home for Older People Norma Victoria Raynes,2001 The government s NHS Plan emphasises the importance of services users views This report provides practical guidance on how to ensure that older people s views are heard acted on and monitored in relation to service quality It makes recommendations for ensuring that older people s views become an integral part of home care service provision

Embracing the Song of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within People And Home

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the prepared term often diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of People And Home an enchanting literary prize brimming with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound impact resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we shall investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
