Teaching Chinese by Culture and TV Drama Lingfen Zhang,2022-04-28 This book integrates culture and authenticity into Chinese classroom practice through exploring the potential of contemporary TV drama as teaching and learning materials for intercultural Chinese language teaching and learning In addressing the four main challenges in culture teaching in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language TCFL this book focuses on precisely this area of pedagogical practice in Chinese as foreign language education and draws on a wide interdisciplinary base including foreign language education cultural studies and intercultural communication to explore the potential of authentic TV drama as language and culture materials for revitalising TCFL and foreign language teaching more generally It examines in detail the culturally shaped beliefs values and practices that give meaning to the action and language of the selected clips in a modern award winning Chinese TV drama This book shows a potential experiential pathway into pedagogical practices to bring contemporary culture into classrooms to engage learners with contemporary and authentic texts and to encourage inquiry focused teaching practices which in being intercultural allow for learners own interpretations of cultural messages in interaction and to recognise learners as learning to understand their own values and beliefs as they learn to explore those of other cultures

People-Centered Approaches Toward the

Internationalization of Higher Education Malfatti, Gabrielle,2020-08-14 Traditionally internationalization efforts in higher education have been rooted in neo liberal transactional models that restrict or compromise the space for meaningful exchanges of socio cultural capital Recently researchers and practitioners in the international education field have taken issue with programming and practices in education abroad international student recruitment and internationalization of the curricula that perpetuate systems of imbalance fossilize prejudices adversely impact host communities abroad and limit student learning to the confines of the Western epistemological traditions As a result scholars and practitioners are creating new paradigms for engagement and exchange People Centered Approaches Toward the Internationalization of Higher Education is an essential scholarly publication that examines the praxis of internationalization in higher education with empirical research and relevant models of practice that approach the topic critically and responsibly The book innovates and re humanizes internationalization efforts including education abroad international recruitment international scholar and student services and internationalization of curriculum by focusing on the people and communities touched intentionally and unintentionally by said efforts It is ideal for higher education faculty education professionals academic advisors academicians administrators curriculum designers researchers and students

Everyday Language and Everyday Life Richard

Hoggart,2003-01-01 Hoggart identifies the sayings and special nuances of the English working class people that have made them identifiable as such from the rude and obscene to the intellectual and imaginative Hoggart also examines the areas of tolerance local morality and public morality elaborating on current usage of words that have evolved from the 14th through the 18th centuries He touches on religion superstition and time the beliefs that animate language And finally he focuses on aphorisms and social change and the emerging idioms of relativism concluding that many early adages still in use seem to refuse to die
