The Debates of the Constitutional Convention of the State of Maryland, Assembled at the City of Annapolis, Wednesday, April 27, 1964 Maryland. Constitutional Convention, 1864 Emerging Adulthood in Hong Kong Chau-kiu Cheung, 2017-09-22 How emerging adults broadly referring to those aged from 18 to 29 years old fare in civic engagement as compared with other adults is the focus of the present work The work takes civic engagement to comprise prosociality in civil society sustaining social institutions and challenging institutions Delineating a theoretical framework based on voluntaristic theory the work expects to find differences in civic engagement due to the voluntaristic mechanisms of power realization utilitarian optimization normative conformity and idealistic consistency maintenance in the emerging adult as compared with the other Using survey data from 25 878 Chinese adults in Hong Kong the work illustrates that the emerging adult is higher than is the other in challenging social institutions notably in terms radicalism and occupying protest Moreover the emerging adult is less prosocial in terms in community participation Meanwhile the emerging adult is not consistently different from the other in sustaining social institutions The findings are crucial given the control various background characteristics including age education marriage and employment These findings are therefore useful for illustrating social forces postulated in voluntaristic theory for explaining civic engagement      Global Governance in the Age of the Anthropocene Markus Fraundorfer, 2022-01-04 Why has global governance largely failed to effectively tackle some of the most pressing global environmental challenges of our time What are the obstacles to effective global and planetary problem solving And which solutions and responses have global governance actors come up with to confront these challenges This textbook teases out the tragic entanglements between dominant global governance dynamics and the global environmental challenges of the Anthropocene showing how international and global cooperation mechanisms that evolved over the last two hundred years are deeply implicated in exacerbating many of today's global environmental challenges The book focuses on several global environmental challenges which are intrinsically interconnected threatening to destabilise the entire Earth system with serious consequences for human societies across the world These global environmental challenges include infectious disease outbreaks global food production processes the pollution of freshwater resources energy consumption patterns deforestation and CO2 emissions At the same time the book also presents several alternative governance examples based on more democratic citizen based and holistic approaches to the global climate crisis which point the way towards a new understanding of global governance in the age of the Anthropocene This textbook is for undergraduate and postgraduate students of global governance environmental politics and international relations      The Debates of the Constitutional Convention of the State of Maryland Maryland. Constitutional Convention, William Blair Lord, Henry Martyn Parkhurst, 1864      Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education R. Reynolds, D. Bradbery, J. Brown, K. Carroll, D. Donnelly, K. Ferguson-Patrick, S. Macqueen, 2015-02-27 This volume addresses the need for an international perspective on global education and provides alternate voices to the theme of global education The editors asked international educators in different contexts to indicate how their own experience of global education addresses the broad and contested concepts associated with this notion Following the lead of the internationally acknowledged authors from North America Europe Africa Australia and Asia perspectives were provided on a wide variety of contexts including tertiary education and teacher education various pedagogies for global education including digital pedagogies and curriculum development at school tertiary and community levels Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education explores the tensions inherent in discussions of global education from a number of facets including spatial pedagogical temporal social and cultural and provides critical descriptive and values laden interpretations The book is divided into five sections Temporal and Spatial Views of Global Education Telling National Stories of Global Education Empowering Citizens for Global Education Deconstructing Global Education and Transforming Curricula for Global Education It is envisaged as a starting point for a stronger international conception of global education and a way to build a conversation for the future of global education in a neo liberal and less internationally confident time      Aboriginal

Rights and Self-government Curtis Cook, Juan David Lindau, 2000 A timely study of the Aboriginal rights movements this collection of essays explores the situation in Canada and Mexico where demands by Native peoples for political autonomy and sovereignty are increasing and suggests why there is little corresponding activity in the United States The contributors address practical questions about the viability of multiple governments within one political system and epistemological questions about recognizing and understanding the other Curtis Cook is professor of political science The Colorado College Juan D Lindau is professor of political science The Colorado College

Human Rights Literacies Cornelia Roux, Anne Becker, 2018-12-29 This book adds impetus to the nexus between human rights human rights education and material reality The dissonance between these aspects is of growing concern for most human rights educators in various social contexts The first part of the book opens up new discourses and presents new ontologies and epistemologies from scholars in human rights human rights education and human rights literacies to critique and or justify the understandings of human rights complex applications Today's rapidly changing social contexts and new languages attempting to understand ongoing dehumanization and violations put enormous pressure on higher education educators individuals working in social sciences policy makers and scholars engaged in curricula making

The second part demonstrates how global interactions between citizens from different countries with diverse understandings of human rights from developed and developing democracies question the link between human rights and its exclusive Western philosophies. Continuing inhumane actions around the globe reflect the failure of human rights law and human rights education in schools, higher education and society at large. The book shows that human rights education is no longer a blueprint for understanding human rights and its universal or contextual values presented for multicompexial societies. The final chapters argue for new ontologies and epistemologies of human rights, human rights education and human rights literacies to open up difficult conversations and to give space to dissonant and disruptive discourses. The many opportunities for human rights education and literacies lies in these conversations. Soviet Life, 1972

Right-Wing Populism in Europe Ruth Wodak, Majid Khosravi-Nik, Brigitte Mral, 2013-03-28. This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com. Right wing populist movements and related political parties are gaining ground in many EU member states. This unique interdisciplinary book provides an overall picture of the dynamics and development of these parties across Europe and beyond. Combining theory with in-depth case studies, it offers a comparative analysis of the policies and rhetoric of existing and emerging parties, including the British BNP, the Hungarian Jobbik and the Danish Folkeparti. The case studies qualitatively and quantitatively analyse right wing populist groups in the following countries: Austria, Germany, Britain, France, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Italy, Netherlands, Hungary, Belgium, Ukraine, Estonia and Latvia, with one essay exclusively focused on the US This timely and socially relevant collection is essential reading for scholars students and practitioners wanting to understand the recent rise of populist right wing parties at local countrywide and regional levels Policy and Rights Challenges in Children's Online Behaviour and Safety, 2017-2023 Andy Phippen,2025-01-11 This book evidences the cyclical failures of online safety policy and challenge conventional policy and educational approaches to tackling online harms and provide a robust argument for a critical evidence based approaches which align with the needs of those we claim to wish to protect It argues for a move away from knee jerk headline grabbing and subjective policy development In drawing parallels from the drug policy world contrasting the increasingly progressive and evidence based policy making in this space compared to prejudiced emotive developments in online harms People, Power, and Law Alexander Gillespie,Claire Breen,2022-05-05 This book offers a unique insight into the key legal and social issues at play in New Zealand today Tackling the most pressing issues it tracks the evolution of these societal problems from 1840 to the present day Issues explored include racism the position of women the position of Maori and free speech and censorship Through these issues the authors track New Zealand s evolution to one of the most famously liberal and tolerant societies in the world Challenges of Policing Democracies Dilip Das,Marenin Otwin,2012-10-12 In this text the editors analyze the diverse situations that police forces operate under and the challenges that they face in different kinds of democracies This cross cultural comparison of various systems highlights the universal observation that police are a anomaly in a democracy and explores how various influences for example large scale social violence a zeal for crime fighting and vulnerability to temptation often find police incapable of behaving in a democratic manner Challenges of Policing Democracies goes beyond just showing the similarities and differences of the policing challenges democratic societies face it also examines the responses and remedies adopted by police in various countries at different levels of democratic achievement and how every society struggles with the challenges of preserving democratic values without sacrificing the effectiveness of policing Challenges for America in the Middle East Richard W.
