Trinidad Turkey and the US invite readers to join the conversation and sustain the work Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert,Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness,Sadiki, Marubini

Christinah,2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education Global Perspectives on Inclusive Teacher Education Rice, Bethany M.,2019-03-01

Inclusive teacher preparation varies greatly in format and practice yet programs grapple with the same underlying challenges which practices work and where do they work As children with disabilities are increasingly being included in schools it is essential that guidance is put into place on how best to adapt inclusive practices into the classroom and create new practices based on the cultural context Global Perspectives on Inclusive Teacher Education summarizes existing research on inclusive practices globally while presenting emerging research and opportunities for cementing change in inclusive teacher education locally including examples of how inclusive practices are integrated in and adapted to diverse cultural contexts Covering topics that include critical pedagogy religious schooling and teacher education this publication is designed for curriculum developers instructional designers administrators higher education faculty educators policymakers and students Sociological Thinking in Music Education Carol

Frierson-Campbell,Clare Hall,Sean Robert Powell,Guillermo Rosabal-Coto,2022-01-14 Sociological Thinking in Music Education presents new ideas about music teaching and learning as important social political economic ecological and cultural ways of being At the book s heart is the intersection between theory and practice where readers gain glimpses of intriguing social phenomena as lived through music learning and teaching The vital roles played by music and music education in various societies around the world are illustrated through pivotal intersections between music education and sociology community schooling and issues of decolonization In this book emerging as well as established scholars mobilize the links between applied sociology music education and music education in ways that intersect the scholarly and the personal These interdisciplinary vantage points fulfil the book s overarching aim to move beyond mere descriptions of what is by analyzing how social inequalities and inequities conflict and control and power can be understood in and through music teaching and learning at both individual and collective levels The result is not only encountering new ideas regarding the social construction of music education practices in specific places but also seeing and hearing familiar ones in fresh ways Digital assets enable readers to meet the authors and the points of their inquiry via various audiovisual media including videos a documentary music film and multi lingual video pr cis for each chapter in English as well as in each author s language of origin
