The Poetry Toolkit: The Essential Guide to Studying Poetry Rhian Williams, 2013-03-14 Now in its 2nd edition this guide helps students build the knowledge and tools needed to tackle poetry with confidence

The Organization of Distance Lucas Klein, 2018-07-17 What makes a Chinese poem Chinese Some call modern Chinese poetry insufficiently Chinese saying it is so influenced by foreign texts that it has lost the essence of Chinese culture as known in premodern poetry Yet that argument overlooks how premodern regulated verse was itself created in imitation of foreign poetics Looking at Bian Zhilin and Yang Lian in the twentieth century alongside medieval Chinese poets such as Wang Wei Du Fu and Li Shangyin The Organization of Distance applies the notions of foreignization and nativization to Chinese poetry to argue that the impression of poetic Chineseness has long been a product of translation from forces both abroad and in the past Conditions Alain Badiou, 2008-01-01 The essays contained within Conditions show the immense scope and potential of Badiou's extraordinary system BOOK JACKET Locating Values in Literature Corina-Mihaela Beleaua, 2020-10-14 Locating Values in Literature Goodness Beauty and Truth discusses the relevance of literature in the current educational process stating that regardless of the level of study literature provides students with the necessary skills to address real world situations Corina Mihaela Beleaua posits that a curriculum that includes literature has a multitude of benefits for the mental and ethical development of students defending the relevance of the three ancient values of goodness beauty and truth Beleaua argues that literature is a significant tool for endorsing these transcendentals and actualizing their positive potentials as humanistic and moral values acting as a symbolic manifestation of moral values that will impact readers outside of the scope of the literature itself Scholars of literature philosophy and education will find this book particularly useful

Forms of Poetic Attention Lucy Alford, 2020-01-28 A poem is often read as a set of formal technical and conventional devices that generate meaning or affect However Lucy Alford suggests that poetic language might be better understood as an instrument for tuning and refining the attention Identifying a crucial link between poetic form and the forming of attention Alford offers a new terminology for how poetic attention works and how attention becomes a subject and object of poetry Forms of Poetic Attention combines close readings of a wide variety of poems with research in the philosophy aesthetics and psychology of attention Drawing on the work of a wide variety of poets such as T S Eliot Wallace Stevens Frank O'Hara Anne Carson Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Harryette Mullen Al Khans Rainer Maria Rilke Arthur Rimbaud and Claudia Rankine Alford defines and locates the particular forms of attention poems both require and produce She theorizes the process of attention making its objects its coordinates its variables while introducing a broad set of interpretive tools into the field of literary studies Forms of Poetic Attention makes the original claim that attention is poetry's primary medium and that the forms of attention demanded by a poem can train hone and refine our capacities for perception and judgment on and off the page Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory

Electromagnetism and the Metonymic Imagination Kieran M. Murphy, 2020-04-02 How does the imagination work How can it lead to both reverie and scientific insight In this book Kieran M Murphy sheds new light on these perennial questions by showing how they have been closely tied to the history of electromagnetism The discovery in 1820 of a mysterious relationship between electricity and magnetism led not only to technological inventions such as the dynamo and telegraph which ushered in the electric age but also to a profound reconceptualization of nature and the role the imagination plays in it From the literary experiments of Edgar Allan Poe Honor de Balzac Villiers de l Isle Adam and Andr Breton to the creative leaps of Michael Faraday and Albert Einstein Murphy illuminates how electromagnetism legitimized imaginative modes of reasoning based on a more acute sense of interconnection and a renewed interest in how metonymic relations could reveal the order of things Murphy organizes his study around real and imagined electromagnetic devices ranging from Faraday s world changing induction experiment to new types of chains and automata in order to demonstrate how they provided a material foundation for rethinking the nature of difference and relation in physical and metaphysical explorations of the world human relationships language and binaries such as life and death This overlooked exchange between science and literature brings a fresh perspective to the critical debates that shaped the nineteenth century Extensively researched and convincingly argued this pathbreaking book addresses a significant lacuna in modern literary criticism and deepens our understanding of both the history of literature and the history of scientific thinking

Imagining the Soul in Premodern Literature Abe Davies,2021-06-28 This book is a study of ghostly matters of the soul in literature spanning the tenth century and the age of Shakespeare All people according to John Donne constantly believe that they have an immortal soul But he also reflects that in fact there is nothing so well established as constrains us to believe both that the soul is immortal and that every particular man hath such a soul In understanding the question of man's disembodied part as at once fundamental and fundamentally uncertain he was entirely of his time and Imagining the Soul in Premodern Literature considers this fraught shifting yet uniquely compelling entity in the context of the literary forms and effects involved in its representation Gruesome medieval dialogues between damned souls and worm eaten bodies verse and prose works by Donne René Descartes Margaret Cavendish and Andrew Marvell a profusion of sonnet sequences sermons manuals of instruction and travelogues Hamlet and its natural philosophical thinking about the apparently disembodied soul haunting Elsinore these chapters range across all this and more offering a rigorous yet accessible account of an essential aspect of premodern literature that will be of interest to scholars students and the general reader alike

The Queer Turn in Feminism Anne Emmanuelle Berger, 2013-12-02 More than any other area of late twentieth century thinking gender theory and its avatars have been to a large extent a Franco American invention In this book a leading Franco American scholar traces differences and intersections in the development of gender and queer theories on both sides of the Atlantic Looking at these theories through lenses that are both American and French thus simultaneously retrospective and anticipatory she tries to account for their alleged exhaustion and currency on the two sides of the Atlantic The book is divided into four parts In the first the author examines two specifically American features of gender theories since their earliest formulations on the one hand an emphasis on the theatricality of gender from John Money's early characterization of gender as role playing to Judith Butler's appropriation of Esther Newton's work on drag queens on the other the early adoption of a queer perspective on gender issues In the second part the author reflects on a shift in the rhetoric concerning sexual minorities and politics that is prevalent today Noting a shift from efforts by oppressed or marginalized segments of the population to make themselves heard to an emphasis on rendering themselves visible she demonstrates the formative role of the American civil rights movement in this new drive to visibility The third part deals with the travels back and forth across the Atlantic of sexual difference ever since its elevation to the status of quasi concept by psychoanalysis Tracing the queering of sexual difference the author reflects on both the modalities and the effects of this development The last section addresses the vexing relationship between Western feminism and capitalism Without trying either to commend or to decry this relationship the author shows its long lasting political and cultural effects on current feminist and postfeminist struggles and discourses To that end she focuses on one of the intense debates within feminist and postfeminist circles the controversy over prostitution

Grammatology and Literary Modernity in Turkey Nergis Ertürk, 2011-10-19 The 1928 Turkish alphabet reform replacing the Perso Arabic script with the Latin phonetic alphabet is an emblem of Turkish modernization Grammatology and Literary Modernity in Turkey traces the history of Turkish alphabet and language reform from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century examining its effects on modern Turkish literature In readings of the novels essays and poetry of Ahmed Midhat Recaizade Mahmud Ekrem Omer Seyfeddin Ahmet Hamdi Tanpınar Peyami Safa and Nazim Hikmet Nergis Ertürk argues that modern Turkish literature is profoundly self conscious of dramatic change in its own historical conditions of possibility Where literary historiography has sometimes idealized the Turkish language reforms as the culmination of a successful project of Westernizing modernization Ertürk suggests a different critical narrative one of the consolidation of control over communication forging a unitary nation and language from a pluralistic and multilingual society
