secondaire est un objectif commun aux programmes de tous les réseaux. Mais pourquoi ? Et comment ? Telles sont les questions auxquelles répond ce manuel novateur destiné aux enseignants et aux élèves. Les auteurs n'ont pas voulu écrire une nouvelle histoire de cette littérature ni composer un recueil de morceaux choisis. Ils proposent des séquences et des situations problèmes concrètes permettant aux élèves de s'approprier du savoir littéraire. Ils rassemblent cette fois des textes connus et moins connus des références des suggestions bref un matériau volontairement diversifié afin de multiples séquences d'apprentissage. Chaque extrait peut son tour susciter des travaux personnels tant en compréhension qu'en production et faire l'objet de comptes rendus de débats ou traiter le point de départ d'une recherche personnelle ou en groupe.

Race, Class, and Power Leo Kuper, 2017-07-05 Examining in detail the apparently inexorable polarization of society in such countries as Rwanda Algeria and South Africa the author questions whether current theories correctly explain the past or offer adequate guides for the future In their place he puts forward an alternative neo Durkheimian view of the possibility of non violent revolutionary change based on the development of such social and cultural continuities as already exist within each plural society But he warns that this is an age of passionate commitment to violence in which vicarious killers abound in search of a Vietnam of their own The aim of this groundbreaking and challenging book is to create theoretical perspectives in which to view the racial conflict of plural societies Written in the turbulent early 1970s the book demonstrates the inadequacy of then prevailing views such as Marxist interpretations of racial conflict as class struggle and the Fanon a priori rejection of non violent techniques of change which Kuper holds responsible for the acceptance of what he calls the platitudes of violence The book concludes with more personal sections focusing on the author's struggles with the then prevailing South African society critiques of that and censorship of his attempts to make these public In the light of subsequent changes in South Africa many decades later this book serves not only as an important work of political sociology but as a personal testament to the fight against racism in South Africa Leo Kuper was professor of sociology and director of the African Studies Center at the University of California Los Angeles A South African by birth he was one of the first writers on genocide as well as other aspects of African studies and urban sociology His major book Genocide Penguin 1981 remains in print The Leo Kuper Foundation is a non governmental organization dedicated to the eradication of genocide through research advice and education It was created in Washington DC in 1994 following the death of Leo Kuper with the aim of improving measures to prevent genocide The main area of work for the past five years has been in support of the creation of an International Criminal Court Troy Duster is director at the Institute for the History of the Production of Knowledge New York University Demeures inspirées et sites romanesques (3)
