Rimbauds Theatre Of The Self:

Rimbaud's Theatre of the Self James R. Lawler, 1992 In a new interpretation of a poet who has swayed the course of modern poetry in France and elsewhere James Lawler focuses on what he demonstrates is the crux of Rimbaud's imagination the masks and adopted personas with which he regularly tested his identity and his art A drama emerges in Lawler's urbane and resourceful reading The thinking feeling acting Drunken Boat is an early theatrical projection of the poet's self the Inventor the Memorialist and the Ing nu assume distinct roles in his later verse It is however in Illuminations and Une Saison en enfer that Rimbaud enacts most powerfully his grandiose dreams Here the poet becomes Self Creator Self Critic Self Ironist he takes the parts of Floodmaker Oriental Storyteller Dreamer Lover and he recounts his descent into Hell in the guise of a Confessor In delineating and exploring the poet's theatre of the self Lawler shows us the tragic lucidity and the dramatic coherence of Rimbaud's work The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R da She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today's readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairean lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Gay and Lesbian Literary Heritage Claude J. Summers, 2014-02-25 The revised edition of The Gay and Lesbian Literary Heritage is a reader's companion to this impressive body of work It provides overviews of gay and lesbian presence in a variety of literatures and historical periods in depth critical essays on major gay and lesbian authors in world literature and briefer treatments of other topics and figures important in appreciating the rich and varied gay and lesbian literary traditions Included are nearly 400 alphabetically arranged articles by more than 175 scholars from around the world New articles in this volume feature authors such as Michael Cunningham Tony Kushner Anne Lister Kate Millet Jan Morris Terrence McNally and Sarah Waters essays on topics such as Comedy of Manners and Autobiography and overviews of Danish Norwegian Philippines and Swedish literatures as well as updated and revised articles and bibliographies Poetry at Stake Carrie Noland, 2021-03-09 Taking seriously Guillaume Apollinaire's wager that twentieth century poets would one day mechanize poetry as modern industry has mechanized the world Carrie Noland explores poetic attempts to redefine the relationship between subjective expression and mechanical reproduction high art and the world of things Noland builds upon close readings to construct a tradition of diverse lyricists from Arthur Rimbaud Blaise Cendrars and Ren Char to contemporary performance artists Laurie Anderson and Patti Smith allied in their concern with the nature of subjectivity in an age of mechanical reproduction

Rimbaud Jean Nicholas Arthur Rimbaud, 2010-05-15 The enfant terrible of French letters Jean Nicholas Arthur Rimbaud 1854-91 was a defiant and precocious youth who wrote some of the most remarkable prose and poetry of the nineteenth century all before leaving the world of verse by the age of twenty one More than a century after his death the young rebel poet continues to appeal to modern readers as much for his turbulent life as for his poetry his stormy affair with fellow poet Paul Verlaine and his nomadic adventures in eastern Africa are as iconic as his hallucinatory poems and symbolist prose The first translation of the poet's complete works when it was published in 1966 Rimbaud Complete Works Selected Letters introduced a new generation of Americans to the alienated genius among them the Doors's lead singer Jim Morrison who wrote to translator Wallace Fowlie to thank him for rendering the poems accessible to those who don't read French that easily Forty years later the book remains the only side by side bilingual edition of Rimbaud's complete poetic works Thoroughly revising Fowlie's edition Seth Whidden has made changes on virtually every page correcting errors reordering poems adding previously omitted versions of poems and some letters and updating the text to reflect current scholarship left in place are Fowlie's literal and respectful translations of Rimbaud's complex and nontraditional verse Whidden also provides a foreword that considers the heritage of Fowlie's edition and adds a bibliography that acknowledges relevant books that have appeared since the original publication On its fortieth anniversary Rimbaud remains the most authoritative and now completely up to date edition of the young master's entire poetic oeuvre

Dream, Creativity, and Madness in Nineteenth-Century France Tony James, 1995-12-28 This is an important new analysis of the problematic relationship between dreams and madness as perceived by nineteenth century French writers thinkers and doctors Those wishing to know the nature of madness wrote Voltaire should observe their dreams The relationship between the dream state and madness is a key theme of nineteenth century European and specifically French thought The meaning of dreams and associated phenomena such as somnambulism ecstasy and hallucinations including those induced by hashish preoccupied writers philosophers and psychiatrists In this path breaking cross disciplinary study Tony James shows how doctors such as Esquirol L lut and Janet thinkers including Maine de Biran and Taine and writers for example Balzac Nerval Baudelaire Victor Hugo and Rimbaud grappled in very different ways with the problems raised by the so called phenomena of sleep Were historical figures such as Socrates or Pascal in fact mad Might dream be a source of creativity rather than a merely subsidiary automatic function What of lucid dreaming By exploring these questions Dreams Madness and Creativity in Nineteenth Century France makes good a considerable gap in the history of pre Freudian psychology and sheds new and fascinating light on the central French writers of the period

High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821 1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire s art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire s equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire s criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time

Poetry and Moral Dialectic James R. Lawler, 1997 Baudelaire ascribed exceptional importance to the arrangement of Les Fleurs du mal His book he said constituted a perfect whole which he had arranged according to a preconceived plan One of his earliest readers the novelist and critic Barbey d Aurevilly spoke of a secret architecture and a plan calculated by the solitary meditative poet though he did not go into details and ever since scholars have pursued the question of structure This new study offers an exciting reading of the 127 poems of the second edition 1861 which shows that beyond the meanings of its individual poems the collection has a sense that we ignore at substantial cost The author presents a precise dialectical method a somber and limpid tete a tete of the poet with himself The argument is pursued between the poems which ask to be read with and against each other
