affected Borneo Besides the impact of the Korean and Vietnam Wars and the Malayan Emergency and communist uprisings in other Southeast Asian states there was within Borneo the attempted communist takeover of Sarawak from the 1950s a failed coup d tat in Brunei in 1962 Sukarno s Konfrontasi confrontation with Malaysia and the horrific purge of Leftists and ethnic Chinese in the late 1960s This book details these momentous events and assesses their impact on Borneo and its people It is a sequel to the author s earlier books The Japanese Occupation of Borneo 1941 1945 2011 and Post War Borneo 1945 1950 Nationalism Empire and State Building 2013 collectively a trilogy      Capturing Globalization James H Mittelman,Norani Othman,2003-09-02 What are the moral codes and normative principles inscribed in globalization How do diverse communities optimize their positions and try to capture these processes What are the foremost cultural and political attempts to govern the market What are the social and ethical limits to a framework based on deregulation privatization and liberalization These related themes reveal how issues such as religion private capital flows poverty the state and democracy transnational class structures disruptions in culture and new patterns in the use of language are part of the globalization process Empirically the research derives from data from fieldwork within and outside Southeast Asia with a common reference point based on research in Malaysia Following the trauma of the late 1990s with environmental abuses in Southeast Asia transnational turmoil in currency trading and the meltdown of stock markets this book seeks to understand how and to what extent communities can reclaim political and social control over the dynamics of globalization This highly original contribution to the globalization debate will be invaluable to researchers in a number of disciplines including political science anthropology history economics Asian Studies and sociology      Shadows in the Forest Peter Dauvergne,1997 This book is the first to analyze the environmental impact of Japanese trade corporations and aid on timber management in the context of Southeast Asian political economies It is also one of the first comprehensive studies of why Southeast Asian states are unable to enforce forest policies and regulations      Singapore Edwin Lee,2008 In 2015 Singapore celebrates its 50th anniversary of independence This book covers the complex historical forces and circumstances that shaped this nation It tells of Britain s imperial visions and schemes and of how their failure cast a shadow on the story of Singapore s incorporation into the Federation of Malaysia and expulsion from it      Limbang Rebellion Eileen Chanin,2020-01-31 In early December 1962 there was a surprise rebel uprising in northern Borneo The leader of the anti colonialist North Kalimantan National Army Sheikh Azahari mounted the insurrection that became known as the Brunei Revolt It aimed to thwart Britain and Malaya s plan to combine the British territories of Borneo into a new Federation of Malaysia The river town of Limbang an administrative centre in the British colony of Sarawak became the pivot of the rebellion that was to be the opening act of the military and diplomatic conflict known as Konfrontasi Combining eyewitness accounts with thorough research Limbang Rebellion reveals what it was like to be thrown into this intense and unexpected conflict in which hostages were taken and threatened with execution It describes the involvement of the Royal Marines under

Captain Jeremy Moore MC and the daring rescue mission he led under challenging circumstances which included being vastly outnumbered by the rebel forces The result is a gripping account of seven dramatic days when a small town in northern Borneo suddenly seized the world's attention The Hakkas of Sarawak Kee Howe Yong,2013-12-06 This book tells the story of the Hakka Chinese in Sarawak Malaysia who were targeted as communists or communist sympathizers because of their Chinese ethnicity the 1960s and 1970s Thousands of these rural Hakkas were relocated into new villages surrounded by barbed wire or detained at correction centres where incarcerated people were understood to be sacrificial gifts to the war on communism and to the rule of Malaysia's judicial administrative regime The Hakkas of Sarawak looks at how these incarcerated people struggled for survival and dealt with their defeat over the course of a generation Using methodologies of narrative theory and exchange theory Kee Howe Yong provides a powerful account of the ongoing legacies of Cold War oppression and its impact on the lives of people who were victimized by these policies Fair Land Sarawak Alastair Morrison,2018-05-31 An officer's first person account of British colonial disengagement from Sarawak Morrison explains the daily bureaucracy of colonial life from an inside perspective and details the changes that occurred during his years in Sarawak the growth and expansion of Communist movements the emerging modernization of various districts and the formation of Malaysia The Malays Anthony Milner,2011-03-25 Just who are the Malays This provocative study poses the question and considers how and why the answers have changed over time and from one region to another Anthony Milner develops a sustained argument about ethnicity and identity in an historical Malay context The Malays is a comprehensive examination of the origins and development of Malay identity ethnicity and consciousness over the past five centuries Covers the political economic and cultural development of the Malays Explores the Malay presence in Brunei Singapore Indonesia Thailand Cambodia Sri Lanka and South Africa as well as the modern Malay show state of Malaysia Offers diplomatic speculation about ways Malay ethnicity will develop and be challenged in the future Malaysia@50: Economic Development, Distribution, Disparities Jomo Kwame Sundaram,Chong Hui Wee,2013-09-16 Malaysia has grown and changed a great deal since it was formed on 16 September 1963 It was then seen as an unlikely nation hastily put together as a federation of British controlled territories in the region Brunei's refusal to join at the eleventh hour and Singapore's secession before its second birthday only seemed to confirm such doubts Yet it has not only survived but even thrived often cited as a developing country worthy of emulation Ruled by the same ruling coalition since the mid 1950s it has been tempting to emphasize continuities and there certainly have been many Looking back at its last half century this volume first considers changes in development policy in response to national as well as international developments The remaining three parts consider how public policy has been influenced by and has in turn influenced economic distribution public finance and economic federalism Besides the familiar focus on ethnic disparities regional and other distribution issues are considered The discussion of government taxation as well as spending also focuses on distribution implications Although constitutionally a federation Malaysia has been more centralized than most federal states The way forward requires greater sensitivity to the complex political economy of Malaysia s unlikely but nonetheless resilient federation and ruling coalition This book is published and distributed worldwide by World Scientific Publishing Co Pte Ltd except Malaysia     The Australian Study of Politics R. Rhodes,2009-11-11 The Australian Study of Politics provides the first comprehensive reference book on the history of the study of politics in Australia whether described as political studies or political science It focuses on Australia and on developments since WWII also exploring the historical roots of each major subfield
