Risk Assessment In Litigation:

Litigation Risk Assessment Michaela Keet, 2018 Without clear projections about where the path of litigation is most likely to lead clients can be anchored in unrealistic expectations about the outcome and the costs of getting there Fundamental to the lawyer's ethical role is the obligation to provide transparent information about legal rights and risks and fundamental to settlement processes is the presumption of informed decision making This paper explores how thorough predictions are often missing in the way that lawyers and clients negotiate Drawing on a recent study of lawyers and law students it summarizes a simple framework for litigation risk assessment Using examples it then examines how it can be used to support the pursuit of settlement grounding the negotiator and client with a well prepared reference point BATNA and reducing adversarial posturing The author seeks to contribute to the development of best practices around the use of risk analysis and the quest for more responsive and earlier settlement outcomes for clients
