Shadow Spinner Susan Fletcher,1999-11 In order to entertain the sultan Marjan must undertake a forbidden mission sneak from the harem and travel to the city in search of new stories Mystery Spinner Gideon Haigh,2002-04-25 It is no mystery that today the name of Jack Iverson is virtually unknown For most of his life he was an unexceptional estate agent in Australia He died in obscurity by his own hand at the age of only 58 He was a clumsy fielder and a hopeless batsman But for four years he was the best spin bowler in the world The story of Jack Iverson is one of the most remarkable in the history of cricket Every now and then wrote one journalist there comes a man who can do the right thing the wrong way round Iverson took up cricket at the advanced age of 31 as capriciously as he left it joining a club 3rd XI in Melbourne one day and instantly announcing himself as the most prodigious and improbable spinner of a cricket ball Using a unique technique he appears to have perfects with a ping pong ball during wartime service in Papua New Guinea he doubled back his middle finger and found he could bowl leg breaks top spinners and googlies every one dropped on a perfect length and impossible to pick Within four years he was bowling the Australian Test side to victory over England in the Ashes series of 1950 51 Then in his moment of triumph he retired from international cricket and was never the same bowler again Mystery Spinner is more than that beautifully written life of an elusive and forgotten hero who after his brief burst of celebrity has left strangely little trace in posterity It is also the utterly compelling story of Gideon Haigh s quest to solve the enduring riddle of Jack Iverson s life a quest which led him across Australia following tenuous clues in school registers and county records And above all it is a moving study for an age that presumes sporting prowess to be the ultimate definition of personal identity of how skill is only half the battle in sport and how it takes an extraordinary individual to cope successfully with extraordinary achievement

The Missing Thread Daisy Dunn, 2024-07-30 One of The Smithsonian's 10 best history books of 2024 One of BBC History Magazine's best books of 2024 Thoroughly researched and sprightly a complete history of the Mediterranean world with the women added back in as they always should have been The New York Times A dazzlingly ambitious history of the ancient world that places women at the center from Cleopatra to Boudica Sappho to Fulvia and countless other artists writers leaders and creators of history Around four thousand years ago the mysterious Minoans sculpted statues of topless women with snakes slithering on their arms Over one thousand years later Sappho wrote great poems of longing and desire For classicist Daisy Dunn these women whether they were simply sitting at their looms at home or participating in the highest echelons of power were up to something much more interesting than other histories would lead us to believe Together these women helped to make antiquity as we know it In this monumental work Dunn reconceives our understanding of the ancient world by emphasizing women's roles within it The Missing Thread never relegates women to the sidelines and is populated with well known names such as Cleopatra and Agrippina as well as the likes of Achaemenid consort Atossa and Olympias a force in Macedon Spanning three thousand years the story moves from Minoan Crete to Mycenaean Greece from Lesbos to Asia Minor from the Persian Empire to the royal court of Macedonia and concludes with Rome and its growing empire The women of antiquity are undeniably woven throughout the fabric of history and in The Missing Thread they finally take center stage
