Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 1993-03-31 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i.e. sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F. Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production emphasizes the importance of not pathologizing one partner at the expense of the other and of being ever vigilant of the interlocking nature of each partner's personality interactional style intergenerational history and sometimes pathology in the relationship The Marital Relationship Therapy Casebook is a continuation of the theories of the Intersystem Model presented in Treating Couples and Couples in Treatment This current volume will continue to provide couples and marital therapists with the wisdom of some of the finest practitioners in the field

The Handbook of Marriage and Marital Therapy G. Pirooz Sholevar, 2013-11-11

Treating Couples Gerald R. Weeks, 2013-05-24 In some ways the development of the theory and practice of marital therapy seems like a relative newcomer to those clinicians who practice systems therapy Most of the books in the field stress the total family as the unit of treatment in terms of understanding the dynamics of family interactions and intervention techniques For the past 15 or 20 years clinicians interested in systems work sought training in family therapy programs and at family therapy workshops This training led to a dramatic shift in the practice of psychotherapy away from the individual as the unit of treatment to the family Much less emphasis has been given to the marital dyad or couple as the unit of treatment
