Metropolis Now Urban Cultures In Our Global Cities:

Metropolis Now! Ramesh Kumar Biswas, 2000 This critical interdisciplinary look at life in metropolitan centers portrays seventeen cities on four different continents Contributors analyze both their economic and social realities as well as their identity recent history and immediate future and the radical transformation in their physical forms The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of London Lawrence Manley, 2011-08-18 This book offers a variety of approaches to the topic of London in English literature from the Middle Ages to the present Cities And Urban Cultures Stevenson, Deborah, 2003-04-01 Explores cities and urban life from the perspectives of both sociology and cultural theory Through an interdisciplinary approach the book demonstrates that the real city of physicality and struggle and the imagined city of representations are entwined in the construction of urban cultures The Creative Capital of Cities Stefan Krätke, 2012-05-03 This book challenges the new urban growth concepts of the creative class and creative industries from a critical urban theory perspective Critiques Richard Florida's popular books about cities and the creative class Presents an alternative approach based on analyses of empirical research data concerning the German urban system and the case study regions Hanover and Berlin Underscores that the culture industry takes a leading role in conforming with neoliberal conceptions of labor markets Culture, Urbanism and Planning Manuel Guardia, 2016-05-13 The relationship between culture and urbanism has been the focus of much discussion and debate in recent years While globalisation tends towards a homogeneity successful global cities have a strong individual and particularly cultural identity The economic value of the culture of cities lies not only in the arts taking place there but also in the city's fabric its architecture and in its cultural heritage This volume brings together a team of leading specialists to examine the policies of image and city marketing which have developed over the past 15 years and whether these are a continuity of earlier strategies Featuring case studies which illustrate diverse perspectives on linking culture urbanism and history the book reviews heritage and planning culture looking at the experience of urbanism in the Old Historic City The book also assesses the increasingly important issue of urban images and their influence on planning strategies Global Shanghai, 1850-2010 Jeffrey N Wasserstrom, 2008-11-25 This book explores the play of international forces and international ideas about Shanghai looking backward as far as its transformation into a subdivided treaty port in the 1840s and looking forward to its upcoming hosting of China's first World's Fair the 2010 Expo As such Global Shanghai is a lively and informative read for students and scholars of Chinese studies and urban studies and anyone interested in the history of Shanghai The Making of Hong Kong Barrie Shelton, Justyna Karakiewicz, Thomas Kvan, 2013-03-01 This book investigates what the history of Hong Kong's urban development has to teach other cities as they face environmental challenges social and demographic change and the need for new models of dense urbanism The authors describe how the high rise intensity of Hong Kong came about how the forest of towers are in fact vertical culs de sac and how the city might become truly volumetric with mixed activities through multiple levels and 3D movement networks incorporating town cubes rather than town squares For more information visit the authors website <http://www.makingofhk.com> makingofhk swf Flagship Marketing Tony Kent,Reva Brown,2009-03-14 Flagships are the physical apogee of consumerism places where brand experiences are most defined and interactions with consumers are highly refined This book marks the first comprehensive study of the concept of the flagship bringing together a range of scholarly insights from the field covering issues such as consumerism areas of consumption and experimental marketing theory and practise The ways in which flagship projects communicate brand values both externally and internally form an important part of this book and provide new perspectives on late twentieth century commercial and cultural policy and practice Kent and Brown offer a truly interdisciplinary approach to the concept offering a variety of perspectives on the debates surrounding flagship function and its role as a place of consumption Chapters focus on the development of prestigious stores hotels and arts and cultural centres as showcases for branded experiences and products and as demonstrations of commercial and public policy Cases and examples include The Eden Project in the UK automotive showrooms in Germany hotels in Dubai and Las Vegas and Vienna's cultural quarter Theoretical discussion explores the tensions between costs and profitability conspicuous consumption and the sustainability of iconic forms The book enables readers to explore the flagship concept from different perspectives and while a marketing approach predominates it provides a disciplinary challenge which will open up new ways of understanding the concept

Kyrgyzstan beyond "Democracy Island" and "Failing State" Johan Engvall,Marlene Laruelle,2015-12-03 Kyrgyzstan is probably the best known of any central Asian country the one that has elicited the most academic publications reports by NGOs or advocacy groups and op eds in the media The country opened up massively to Western influence through development aid for civil society and for economic reforms faced two revolutions in 2005 and 2010 and experienced bloody interethnic conflict in 2010 Kyrgyzstan is therefore commonly studied as a twin case that of having been for more than two decades both an island of democracy in Central Asia and the only country of the region to have made the transition to a parliamentary regime and the archetypical example of a failing state one marked by endemic corruption criminalization of the state apparatus and collapse of public services This volume goes beyond these two clichés and provides a research based and unideological narrative on the country It identifies political dynamics their powerbrokers and the role of international organizations investigates the profound social transformations of both the rural and the urban worlds and examines the broad feeling by local actors that Kyrgyzstan's fragile state identity should be consolidated This book gives the floor to the new generation of scholars whose long term vernacular language field research made it possible to provide new interpretative prisms for the complex evolution of Kyrgyzstan

The State of the World's Cities 2004/2005 ,2004 As towns and cities expand at unprecedented rates sustainable urban development is one of the most pressing challenges facing the international community in the 21st century This publication examines the realities faced by urban populations around the world focusing on the impact of globalisation and the way cities are governed and planned on the make up and density of their population and on their cultures and economies Issues considered include the impact of globalisation on urban culture urban renewal and cultural strategies the concept of metropolitanization socio economic and cultural impacts of international migration urban poverty and homelessness social inequality and exclusion urban governance safety and crime trends contemporary planning strategies and the role of civil society progress towards attainment of the Millennium Development Goals targets for sanitation and housing The report highlights the need for a new culture of planning to establish multicultural and inclusive cities involving civil society as well as public authorities

Everyday Lives in the Global City Jörg Dürrschmidt, 2013-04-15 Rejecting simplifying notions of globalisation as a macro economic force this book provides a grounded picture of the various ways in which people s biographies are tied up with the global cultural economy The main argument of the book is that the globalisation of lives is experienced by people as the extension of their milieux both spatially and symbolically

World Music: A Very Short Introduction Philip V. Bohlman, 2002-05-30 World music emerged as an invention of the West from encounters with other cultures This book draws readers into a remarkable range of these historical encounters in which music had the power to evoke the exotic and to give voice to the voiceless In the course of the volume s eight chapters the reader witnesses music s involvement in the modern world but also the individual moments and particular histories that are crucial to an understanding of music s diversity World Music is wide ranging in its geographical scope yet individual chapters provide in depth treatments of selected music cultures and regional music histories The book frequently zooms in on repertoires and musicians such as Bob Marley Bartok and Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan and attempts to account for world music s growing presence and popularity at the beginning of the twenty first century

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

The Culture of Cities Lewis Mumford, 2016-03-08 A classic work advocating ecological urban planning from a civic visionary and former architecture critic for the New Yorker Considered among the greatest works of Lewis Mumford a prolific historian sociologist philosopher of technology and longtime architecture critic for the New Yorker The Culture of Cities is a call for communal action to rebuild the urban world on a sounder human foundation First published in 1938 this radical investigation into the human environment is based on firsthand surveys of North American and European locales as well as extensive historical and technological research Mumford takes readers from the compact worker friendly streets of medieval hamlets to the symmetrical neoclassical avenues of Renaissance cities He studies the squalor of nineteenth century factory towns and speculates on the fate of the booming twentieth century Megalopolis whose impossible scale Mumford believes can only lead to its collapse into a Nekropolis a monstrosity of living death A civic visionary Mumford is credited with some of the earliest proposals for ecological urban planning and the appropriate use of technology to create balanced living environments In the final chapters of The Culture of Cities he outlines possible paths toward utopian future cities that could be free of the stressors of the Megalopolis in sync with the rhythms of daily life powered by clean energy integrated with agricultural regions and full of honest and comfortable housing for the working class The principles set forth by these visions once applied to Nazi occupied Europe s razed cities are still relevant today as technological advances and overpopulation change the nature of urban life

Handbook of Urban Geography Tim Schwanen,Ronald van Kempen,2019 This collection brings together the latest thinking in urban geography It provides a comprehensive overview of topical issues and draws on experiences from across the world Chapters have been prepared by leading researchers in the field and cover themes as diverse as urban economies inequalities and diversity conflicts and politics ecology and sustainability and information technologies The Handbook offers a valuable resource for students and researchers interested in cities and the urban in geography and across the wider social sciences

International Migration and Security Elspeth Guild,Joanne van Selm,2005-03-31 This book investigates value assessments regarding migrants in Europe the USA Canada and Australia While looking at issues such as security human rights legal systems identity racism welfare health and labour

The Urban Contract Paolo Perulli,2016-07-22 Today the increasing mobility of capital people and information has changed the space relations of urban societies Contractual relations have increased in every field of social life in the economic field but also in the political and in creative and scientific areas Contracts are not only legal frameworks or economic aggregates of individuals but socially embedded forms The concept of urban contract proposed in this book combines the theoretical body of economic juridical literature on the contract with that of historical anthropological and socio spatial literature on the city Through a diverse range of ten city case studies The Urban Contract compares European North American and Asian Urban Contracts It concludes with a theoretical proposal for understanding the deep dialectical nature of Contract Cities their reciprocity and competition their dual trend towards growth and decay their cyclical nature as agents of change and disruption of the social forms of urbanity

Urban Underworlds Thomas Heise,2011 Urban Underworlds is an exploration of city spaces pathologized identities lurid fears and American literature Surveying one hundred years of history and fusing sociology urban planning and criminology with literary and cultural studies it chronicles how and why marginalized populations immigrant Americans in the Lower East Side gays and lesbians in Greenwich Village and downtown Los Angeles the black underclass in Harlem and Chicago and the new urban poor dispersed across American cities have been selectively targeted as urban underworlds and their neighborhoods

Environmental Restoration and Design for Recreation and Ecotourism Robert L. France,2011-11-16 A wetland center in London parks in downtown San Francisco a wildlife sanctuary in Arcata and a wetlands park on the outskirts of Las Vegas what do these urban and suburban locations have in common They are leading examples of a new restoration design approach that is squarely placed at the interface of nature and culture

This multidisciplinary paradigm bridges the gap between an ecological approach preoccupied with returning damaged landscapes to an imagined original state and a landscape design approach concerned with creating a place for people to inhabit. Environmental Restoration and Design for Recreation and Ecotourism is the first book to provide a detailed examination of the entire process of restoring damaged or abandoned landscapes to benefit both nature and people specifically for the purposes of recreation and ecotourism. With a focus on history, planning, methodology, design, and construction, it explores five case studies of successful regenerative landscape design projects and gives readers an inside look at the evolution of design projects. Two of the cases offer a particularly comprehensive review of award-winning projects: the reparation of the degraded Las Vegas Wash into Clark County Wetlands Park and the transformation of the abandoned Barn Elms Reservoirs into the London Wetland Centre. Supported by extensive photographs, tables, maps, sketches, and schematics, these case studies trace how ideas are first conceived and then adopted, transformed, or even abandoned along the way. Each case study also includes a questions and answers discussion with designers and managers, emphasizing the need for interdisciplinary cooperation. The book presents lessons learned from some of the most innovative projects in regenerative landscape design.

Fluctuating Borders Rosalea Monacella, SueAnne Ware, 2007. FLUCTUATING BORDERS is a publication which reconsiders the possibilities for international borders. In this volume, designers and theorists from multiple but cognate disciplines such as Planning, Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Urban Design, and the Visual Arts have reflected on and critiqued notions of memory, fluctuation, and emergence.

Concise Encyclopedia of Comparative Sociology, 2014-05-12. The Concise Encyclopedia of Comparative Sociology presents the current state of knowledge in comparative sociology for students, scholars, and the educated lay public. The major aim of comparative sociological research is to identify similarities and differences among societies, studying variation across both geographical regions and historical periods. This volume is divided into six broad categories: Theoretical and Methodological Issues in Comparing Societies; Comparative Historical Sociology; Comparing Institutions and Social Structures; Comparing Social Processes; Comparing Nation States and World Regions; and Biographies of Exemplary Comparative Sociologists. Nearly 60 essays written by distinguished experts in their fields focus on the first five categories, while the biographical section contains forty biographies of both classical and contemporary sociologists who have made major contributions to comparative sociology. Contributors include David Baker, Wenda Bauchspies, Hans Peter Blossfeld, Harriet Bradley, Sandra Buchholz, Miguel Centeno, Karen Cerulo, Brett Clark, Amy Corning, William D. Antonio, Mario Diani, Mattei Dogan, Riley Dunlap, Shmuel Eisenstadt, Mike Featherstone, Claude Fischer, Joshua Fishman, William Gamson, Julian Go, Jack Goldstone, Ralph Grillo, John Hall, Steve Hall, Robert Heiner, Joseph Hermanowicz, Margret Hornsteiner, David Johnson, Andrew Jorgenson, Jack Levy, Robert Marsh, Bill McCarthy, David Johnson, James Midgley, Peter Mohler, Linda Molm, Benjamin Moodie, Victor Nee, Anthony Orum, William Outhwaite, Anthony Pogorelc, Harland Prechel, Danielle Resnick, Glenn Robinson, Luis Roniger, Thomas Saalfeld, Stephen
