Neibaur, 2010-07-16 Born into a family of vaudevillians Buster Keaton made his first film appearance in 1917 at the age of 21 By the early 1920s he had established himself as one of the geniuses of silent cinema with such films as Sherlock Jr and The Navigator and his 1925 work The General placed at number 18 in the American Film Institute's poll of the 100 greatest features the highest ranked silent film on the survey But with the advent of sound in the late 1920s silent stars like Keaton began to fall out of favor and the great comedian s career began to decline In The Fall of Buster Keaton James Neibaur assesses Keaton's work during the talking picture era especially those made at MGM Educational and Columbia studios While giving some attention to the early part of Keaton's career Neibaur focuses on Keaton's contract work with the three studios as well as his subsequent work as a gagman supporting player and television pitchman The book also recounts the resurgence of interest in Keaton's silent work which resulted in a lifetime achievement Oscar and worldwide recognition before his death in 1966 This fascinating account of an artist's struggle and triumph during the more challenging period of his career will be of interest to anyone wanting to learn about one of film's most influential and was ripe for a takeover A defining moment occurred in 1969 when Kirk Kerkorian a Las Vegas entrepreneur made a successful bid for the company There followed a tumultuous thirty six year period when Kerkorian bought and sold MGM three times Meanwhile MGM never regained its former status and has functioned as a second tier company to this day Focusing on MGM s top talent such as Louis B Mayer Irving Thalberg David O Selznick and Arthur Freed directors King Vidor and Vincente Minnelli and stars of the screen Greta Garbo Judy Garland Clark Gable and Mickey Rooney and award winning films this book highlights the studio's artistic achievements and status within the industry Turner Classic Movies Presents Leonard Maltin's Classic Movie Guide Leonard Maltin, 2015-09-29 The definitive guide to classic films from one of America's most trusted film critics Thanks to Netflix and cable television classic films are more accessible than ever Now co branded with Turner Classic Movies Leonard Maltin's Classic Movie Guide covers films from Hollywood and around the world from the silent era through 1965 and from The Maltese Falcon to Singin in the Rain and Godzilla King of the Monsters Thoroughly revised and updated and featuring expanded indexes a list of Maltin's personal recommendations and three hundred new entries including many offbeat and obscure films this new edition is a must have companion for every movie lover LIFE, 1964-09-18 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The 50 MGM Films That Transformed Hollywood Steven Bingen, 2022-11-01 Movies don t exist in a vacuum Each MGM movie is a tiny piece of a large colorful although often black and white guilt with threads tying it into all of the rest of that studio s product going forward yes but also backward and horizontally and three dimensionally across its entire landscape Not necessarily a best of compilation this book discusses the films that for one reason or another and not all of them good ones changed the trajectory of MGM and the film industry in general from the revolutionary use of Cinerama in 1962 s How the West Was Won to Director Alfred Hitchcock s near extortion of the profits from the 1959 hit thriller North by Northwest And there are the studio s on screen self shoutouts to its own past or stars in films like Party Girl 1958 the That's Entertainment series Garbo Talks 1984 Rain Man 1955 and De Lovely 2004 or the studio s acquisition of other successful franchises such as James Bond But fear not what we consider MGM s classic films all get their due here often with a touch of irony or fascinating anecdote Singin in the Rain 1952 for example was in its day neither a financial blockbuster nor critically acclaimed but rather an excuse for the studio to reuse some old songs it already owned The Wizard of Oz 1939 cost almost as much to make as Gone With the Wind also 1939 and took ten years to recoup its costs But still the MGM mystique endures Like the popular Netflix series The Movies that Made Us this is a fascinating look behind the scenes of the greatest and at times notorious films ever made Dialogue on Film, 1973 Transcriptions of interview format seminars conducted at the American Film Institute with prominent film directors actors and cinematographers
