Performative monuments Mechtild Widrich, 2024-07-30 This book answers one of the most puzzling questions in contemporary art how did performance artists of the 60s and 70s famous for their opposition both to lasting art and the political establishment become the foremost monument builders of the 80s 90s and today Not by selling out nor by making self undermining monuments This book argues that the centrality of performance to monuments and indeed public art in general rests not on its ephemerality or anti authoritarian rhetoric but on its power to build interpersonal bonds both personal and social Specifically the survival of body art in photographs that cross time and space to meet new audiences makes it literally into a monument The argument of the book spans art in Austria the former Yugoslavia and Germany Valie Export Peter Weibel and the Viennese Actionists working in Austria and abroad Marina Abramovic Sanja Ivecovic and Braco Dimitrijevic working in Yugoslavia and abroad and Joseph Beuys and Jochen Gerz working in Germany and abroad These artists began by critiquing monumentality in authoritarian public space and expanded the models developed on the streets of Vienna Munich Rome Belgrade and Zagreb to participatory monuments that delegate political authority to the audience Readers interested in contemporary art politics photography and performance will find in this book new facts and arguments for their interconnection Mia san mia Hans Haacke, Sabine Breitwieser, 2001 Working Conditions Hans Haacke, 2016-10-21 Texts by Hans Haacke that range from straightforward descriptions of his artworks to wide ranging reflections on the relationship between art and politics Hans Haacke s art articulates the interdependence of multiple
