Miami Then Now:

The Corpse Had a Familiar Face Edna Buchanan, 2009-07-14 This classic by the Pulitzer Prize winning author is her nonfiction masterpiece a tale of life and death on Miami's streets which she covered for 18 years for The Miami Herald Reissue

The Routledge Companion to the Philosophy of Architectural Reconstruction Zoltán Somhegyi, Lisa Giombini, 2024-05-30 This companion investigates the philosophical and theoretical foundations determining the conditions of possibility and the limits that make the conservation readaptation and transformation of past buildings legitimate operations As increasing ecological and economic challenges question opportunities for new construction the process of restoring transforming and readapting buildings for new or continued use is becoming an essential part of architectural practice At the same time the role of building conservation is changing from mere material preservation to being part of a broader strategy for social regeneration eco awareness and inclusive urban planning Chapters of this volume explore the complex set of considerations that inform decisions to merely preserve accurately restore or variously reuse a building They also look at the broader philosophical concerns such as ethical and aesthetic values combined with ideas of heritage history and collective identity Case studies on reconstruction after war gentrification the restoration of ancient edifices reconstruction following the effects of climate change and the use of technology solutions among many others make this a timely and urgent volume Adopting a broad transcultural perspective with contributions from five continents the volume combines theoretical approaches with more practical case study based investigations and will be of great interest to upper level students and academics working in the fields of architecture conservation urban design aesthetics and heritage management

Michael Mann - Cinema and Television Steven Sanders, 2014-07-03 This reader is the first to bring together a selection of Mann's own interviews where he reflects on his film and television productions The sixteen interviews provide historical context interpretation and evaluation of the auteur's work They encompass his entire career as a feature filmmaker and television producer director as he and others reflect on his themes working methods artistic development and career achievements The book aims to open up Mann's body of work making it available for comparison with the work of his contemporaries and to provide fresh insights into his film and television work A substantive introductory essay chronology and filmography provide additional bases for understanding the interviews essays and work of this major filmmaker

Ribbons of Death Michael J. Pahnlick, 2010-04-27 This story is fiction but make no mistake it is well with in the realm of possibility DNA deoxyribonucleic acid The story is about two Philadelphia Detectives who have been given an easy case by their Chief Only to find it filled with murder covering both North America and Europe They received help from both Inter Pol and Belgium Police in solving this case The only good thing to happen during this time is both Detectives find love and maybe even happiness The final outcome will surprise you

To God Be The Glory Sis. Bennel Jackson, 2012-10 According to the experiences about what happened to me I desire to advise all parents to be careful with their children to try to get involved in their school life because I do not want the things that happened to me to happen to anyone else When you have children you must ensure that you know for sure everything about your child Do not just drop them to babysitters and bathe them and put them to sleep on and on day by day because you might have a wonderful and gifted child and socety might tell you otherwise If you do not know your child you will believe everything society tells you and then your child s lige will be in danger without cause You must be patient with your child Make sure that you give them a good education beginning from their birth that is consistent with the doctrines and laws of God Lobby Investigation: December 10-13, 17-20, 1929 United States.
