Adams,2017-03-28 Many children s ministries are a flurry of activity run by dedicated volunteers and staff who put in long hours and work hard for the good of the children and parents they serve Yet despite good intentions many children s ministries today are not effective They lack purpose and intentionality A twenty five year veteran of children s ministry in the local church pastor Steve Adams has ministered to families in multiple churches from tiny church plants to his present position at Saddleback Church In this book Steve applies the revolutionary insights of the Purpose Driven Church to children s ministry and leads readers on a journey of discovery showing them how to develop an intentional ministry process that moves children toward spiritual health while building a healthy ministry environment for those who work with kids You will learn how to ask and answer five simple but powerful questions Why are we on this journey Where are you and where are you going Who are we trying to reach How will we move our children towards spiritual health What are the essential elements necessary for the journey There is no single key to a successful children s ministry nor is there only one way that works for everyone But there is a proven process you can follow and Steve shows how children s ministries all over the world are reaching their God given potential by discovering their biblical purpose avoiding the traps of frustration and burnout      Keeping Your Children's Ministry on Mission Jared Kennedy,2022-02-23 Practical Strategies for Gospel Centered Children s Ministry When building a children s ministry at a church there is so much to consider Which curriculum should we use How many volunteers do we need How do we keep parents in the loop And that s before we run into stalled check in computers missing activity sheets and floors that need to be vacuumed While all of the tasks of children s ministry are important leaders can get easily distracted with the everyday work of doing ministry and lose sight of the main focus the gospel Writing from personal ministry experience Jared Kennedy shares a four fold approach for gospel centered missional children s ministry hospitality teaching discipleship and mission This practical resource covers a variety of topics ranging from creating child protection policies to putting together lesson plans

Barrett,Charlotte P. Holter,2023-05-05 Far too many churches in North America are either plateauing or dying In almost every community a former church is either closed or turned into something other than who she used to be It is heartbreaking to see places where once people glorified God sold away as the church property changed hands through a sale or auction on the courthouse steps One must realize that it is not one decision that closed the established church but multiple decisions sometimes made over decades that got it to closure Without a clear mission the church lurched inward and slowly died One does not have to look very far to find the missional call found in Matt 28 16 20 or as others call it the Great Commission Yet where is the church on mission today Far too many are focused on internal matters instead of external spiritual issues and are allowing millions to go to hell without knowing the redeeming grace of Jesus Christ What will it take for a transformation to happen Missional service will take a willing heart to serve others locally and internationally as the hands and feet of Christ It will take the ability to keep learning and growing in God s grace while celebrating victories as they come It seems basic right Yet most churches in communities like yours do not support missionaries through programs tied to mission agencies or investing locally to reach the lost The time of inaction has lapsed and it is time for God s church to come alive through within the guild e.g. Nijay Gupta's Prepare Succeed Advance and Ben Witherington's Is There a Doctor in the House and it seeks to develop that tradition considerably Bill Bright and Campus Crusade for Christ John G. Turner, 2009-11-30

Founded as a local college ministry in 1951 Campus Crusade for Christ has become one of the world's largest evangelical organizations today boasting an annual budget of more than 500 million. Nondenominational organizations like Campus Crusade account for much of modern evangelicalism's dynamism and adaptation to mainstream American culture. Despite the importance of these parachurch organizations says John Turner historians have largely ignored them. Turner offers an accessible and colorful history of Campus Crusade and its founder Bill Bright whose marketing and fund raising acumen transformed the organization into an international evangelical empire. Drawing on archival materials and more than one hundred interviews Turner challenges the dominant narrative of the secularization of higher education demonstrating how Campus Crusade helped reestablish evangelical Christianity as a visible subculture on American campuses. Beyond the campus Bright expanded evangelicalism's influence in the worlds of business and politics. As Turner demonstrates the story of Campus Crusade reflects the halting movement of evangelicalism into mainstream American society its awkward marriage with conservative politics its hesitancy over gender roles and sexuality and its growing affluence Christian Directory, 1975

In Tune With God: Living by the Hymns of Faith Susanna Ranae, 2017-07-12 In Tune with God is a tribute to the great hymns of Christian faith and belief in the Lord Jesus Christ. Inspired by the Holy Spirit songwriters of old and new have penned righteous lyrical instructions applicable for daily living. These melodies hold deep meaning in our lives as they lift our spirits and fill our hearts with joy for the journey just as King David's psalms do. This book examines twelve aspects of life and how the faithful tunes relate to our relationship with the Father. Life will afford harmony and discord for the believer and nonbeliever alike. It is inevitable to walk closely with the Savior in order to know and be in His will. One whose life is in tune with God can share a beautiful sound for all the world to hear
