Entrepreneurship for Deprived Communities Nikolai Mouraviev,Alex Avramenko,2020-04-09 Using case studies and research based narratives to investigate the barriers facing developing enterprises in deprived communities this book provides a toolkit for small business professionals and local authorities to revitalise a community centered enterprise culture and reinvigorate disadvantaged groups One Bread, One Body C. Michael Hawn,2003-06-01 As a troubadour for global music and an instigator of cross cultural worship for more than 15 years in a variety of denominational settings including congregational national and international venues Michael Hawn has observed many faithful people who find that a taste of Pentecost in worship is refreshing and invigorating In One Bread One Body Exploring Cultural Diversity in Worship Hawn seeks to help bridge the gap between the human tendency to prefer ethnic and cultural homogeneity in worship and the church s mandate to offer a more diverse and inclusive experience He offers a rainbow vision of the universal church where young and old joyfully and thoughtfully respond to the movement of God s Spirit in multicultural worship Hawn and four colleagues from Perkins School of Theology in Dallas formed a diverse team in ethnicity gender academic field of study and denominational affiliation to study four United Methodist congregations in the Dallas area that are grappling with cross cultural ministry Their four case studies illustrate both the pain and the possibilities encountered in capturing the Spirit of Pentecost in worship Hawn also offers a concise and practical theological framework as well as numerous strategies and an extensive bibliography for implementing culturally conscious worship This book is invaluable for congregations that want to undertake the hard work of cross cultural worship High Definition Living Ed Young,2010-05-11 Whether you re a stay at home mom a business executive or a visible leader in your church this book will give you a clear picture of how you can fulfill God s mission for your life Drawing on concepts learned from the Old Testament prophet Nehemiah author Ed Young shares high definition principles for everyone who wants to live a life of super clarity as a follower of Christ God intends that every follower of His be a leader of others Young is not primarily talking about the kind of leadership that puts you in front of large crowds or has you directing huge projects He s talking about making a difference for God as you impact others for His Kingdom wherever you are whoever you are The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty-First Century Carrie A. Miles,2025-08-21 Drawing on interviews with founders of independent missions field work in Africa India and Haiti and her experience as director of an independent mission Carrie A Miles explores the challenges and strengths of missions built on interpersonal relationships and spiritual capital This book examines the rise of a new movement within Global Christianity the independent mission Once death defying residential lifelong commitments undertaken and supported by career professionals a growing number of international missions are now small agencies operating without institutional support and undertaken by volunteers who travel occasionally to the mission field but who live and work at home Focusing on the importance of culturally respectful collaborations with national partners this book also deals with the harm caused by missionaries who do not share that orientation In a compelling example Miles recounts her discovery that early missionaries to East Africa taught that God cursed humankind in Creation Making no attempt to understand the meaning of curses in traditional religions however the missionaries created a devastating syncretism that persists to this day The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty First Century Cross Cultural Partnership without Syncretism argues that in requiring cross cultural awareness to operate the constraints of working independently are also its strengths Witchcraft as a Social Diagnosis Roxane Richter,Thomas Flowers,Elias Bongmba,2017-02-27 This interdisciplinary manuscript examines one nonprofit s five years of medical outreach in the condemned witches village of Gnani in Ghana focusing on the clashes between traditional Ghanaian beliefs African religious tenets and contemporary Western medical science The research draws upon 1 714 patient interventions and 95 personal interviews exposing the inherent challenges of separating indigenous beliefs surrounding fate and witchcraft convictions from contemporary interpretations of biological pathogens structural and gender based violence and evidence based medicine This book offers a novel perspective on witchcraft as it examines questions of stigmatization in order to extrapolate how disease injury and illness relate to social condition and the dialogue surrounding witchcraft These unprecedented insights will serve to uncover and explore rural Ghanaian challenges in gender based violence religion legal and political tenets human rights and medical science and their many implications for those in search of health parity social justice gender equity and human rights
