disciplinary angles as varied as anthropology history sociology acoustics articulatory phonetics musicology or sound psychology Still a specifically narrative focus is often missing Narratology has broadened its scope to look at narratives from transdisciplinary and transmedial perspectives However there is a bias towards visual or audio visual media such as comics and graphic novels film TV hyperfiction and pictorial art The aim of this book is to foreground the oral and aural sides of storytelling asking how sound voice and music support narrative structure or even assume narrative functions in their own right It brings together cutting edge research on forms of sound narration hitherto neglected in narratology radio plays audiobooks audio guides mobile phone theatre performance poetry concept albums digital stories computer games songs

Creating Memory John Warkentin, 2010 Toronto has over 600 public outdoor sculptures works of art that provide a sense of the rich variety of life and work in the city its peoples cultures and aspirations Interest in commissioning public sculpture began slowly in the nineteenth and early twentieth century but increased rapidly after the 1950s This is a book about the sculptures and how they disclose the city to itself Creating Memory s two introductory sections examine the factors behind this expansion over time and the changes in style as one generation of sculptors succeeded another It looks at the reasons behind the changes as sculptures were conceived sculpted and erected More than 10 categories of sculptures are defined and discussed including Founding the City Natural Environment Immigration Ethnic Groups Economic Activities Disaster and Calamity War And Conflict Leaders Ordinary Citizens Community Life and Works of the Imagination Reconstructing Performance Art Tancredi Gusman, 2023-05-26 This book investigates the practices of reconstructing and representing performance art and their power to shape this art form and our understanding of it Performance art emerged internationally between the 1960s and 1970s crossing disciplinary boundaries between performing arts and visual arts Because of the challenge it posed to the ontologies and paradigms of these fields performance art has since stimulated an ongoing debate on the most appropriate means to document preserve and display it Tancredi Gusman brings together international scholars from different disciplinary fields to examine methods media and approaches by which this art form has been represented and re activated over time and its transnational history reconstructed Through contributions and case studies spanning various countries regions and artistic fields the authors outline an innovative theoretical methodological framework for capturing the processes and strategies for transmitting the tangible and intangible heritage of performance art This book will be of great appeal to students researchers and practitioners in the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies as well as Visual Arts and Art History who have an interest in performance art its history and presence in the contemporary artistic and cultural landscape Perspective 93: Micah Lexier and Lani Maestro ,1993
