Diabetes Literature Index ,1972 Study English Gene Swanepoel,1999-12 National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins,2006-11-01 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century Jenkins book focuses on what made the subsequent literature essentially South African and what aspects of the country and its society authors concentrated on What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Another exceptional feature is that the book follows the author s previous work in placing children s literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history e g cinema He also makes enlightening comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children s literature Who's who of Rhodesia, Mauritius, Central and East Africa ,1967 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1999 The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe,2008 Columbia s guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent s rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development Current Bibliography of Epidemiology ,1972 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1902 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1925 Universal Dictionary of the English Language ,1898 Current List of Medical Literature ,1959 Includes section Recent book
