Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de l toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano s use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust Michael, chien de cirque Jack London, 1978 Catalog of Copyright Entries. argues that Godard's work captured the revolutionary spirit of Paris in the late 1960s as no other filmmaker has dared and in fact reinvented the medium Rebhandl skillfully weaves together biographical details information about the cultural intellectual and cinematic milieu over the decades and descriptions of Godard's most significant films to support his assertion that the director was a permanent revolutionary always seeking new ways to create understand and comment on film within a larger context He views Godard as an artist consistently true to himself while never ceasing to change and evolve often in unexpected radical and controversial ways Rebhandl is known as a journalist with deep insights and lucid prose Despite the wealth of material to analyze he neither gets lost in the details nor offers a superficial gloss even while directly tackling such topics as the long standing charges of antisemitism against Godard and his oeuvre This volume will be welcome to both casual fans and dedicated devotees
