Michel De Klerk Architect And Artist Of The Amsterdam School 1884-1923:

The Amsterdam School Maristella Casciato, 1996 The first years of this century witnessed the birth in Amsterdam of a movement which with its sculptural opulence of form would alter dramatically the appearance of that city Under the leadership of architects like Wijdeveld Kramer and De Klerk there evolved an expressionist visual language which under the name of Amsterdam School would create a stir on an international scale Here aided by almost 500 illustrations is a comprehensive survey of many designs produced by the Amsterdam School including such masterpieces as Van der Mey's Scheepvaarthuis Berlage's plan for Amsterdam South Kramer's bridges and De Klerk's De Dageraad and Eigen Haard housing estates The work also deals with the carvings of Hildo Krop street furniture designs and domestic interiors The extensive bibliography and biographies of the most important architects make this an indispensable work of reference

Michel de Klerk Manfred Bock, Sigrid Johannisse, Vladimir Stissi, 1997 Michel De Klerk who died young was the leader of the Amsterdam School the expressionist movement in Dutch architecture of the second and third decades of this century In two essays and an extensive catalogue Sigrid Johannisse and Vladimir Stissi have analyzed De Klerk's designs and shed light on their genesis In addition they place De Klerk and his work in the context of the Amsterdam architecture of the first decades of the century as well as the national and international one Furthermore they demonstrate De Klerk's contribution to the development of the task of public housing in the urban space with the famous blocks on the Spaarndammerplantsoen in Amsterdam as high point In an introduction Manfred Bock describes the complicated art historical reception of De Klerk's work and the interest in one of the most extraordinary Dutch architects of the twentieth century

Housing Design and Society in Amsterdam Nancy Stieber, 1998-07-20 Winner of the 1999 Spiro Kostof Book Award from the Society of Architectural Historians During the early 1900s Amsterdam developed an international reputation as an urban mecca when invigorating reforms gave rise to new residential neighborhoods encircling the city's dispirited nineteenth century districts This new housing built primarily with government subsidy not only was affordable but also met rigorous standards of urban planning and architectural design Nancy Stieber explores the social and political developments that fostered this innovation in public housing Drawing on government records professional journals and polemical writings Stieber examines how government supported large scale housing projects how architects like Berlage redefined their role as architects in service to society and how the housing occupants were affected by public debates about working class life the cultural value of housing and the role of art in society Stieber emphasizes the tensions involved in making architectural design a social practice while she demonstrates the success of this collective enterprise in bringing about effective social policy and aesthetic progress

Architects' Drawings Kendra Schank Smith, 2006-08-11 Sketches from prominent architects drawn from an international selection A unique insight into how architects use sketches to develop and transfer complex concepts into physical form enabling readers to improve the connection between their own ideas and designs Reveals the secrets of the most successful sketching techniques used by architects for today's designers The Sea in World History Stephen K. Stein, 2017-04-24 This two volume set documents the essential role of the sea and maritime activity across history from travel and food production to commerce and conquest In all eras water transport has served as the cheapest and most efficient means of moving cargo and people over any significant distance Only relatively recently have railroads and aircraft provided an alternative Most of the world's bulk goods continue to travel primarily by ship over water Even today 95 percent of the cargo that enters and leaves the United States does so by ship Similarly people around the world rely on the sea for food and in recent years the sea has become an important source of oil and other resources with the longterm effects of our continuing efforts to extract resources from the sea further highlighting environmental concerns that range from pollution to the exhaustion of fish stocks This chronologically organized two volume reference addresses the history of the sea beginning with ancient civilizations 4000 to 1000 BCE and ending with the modern era 1945 to the present day Each of the eight chapters is further broken down into sections that focus on specific nations or regions offering detailed descriptions of that area of the world and shorter entries on specific topics individuals and events The book spans maritime history covering major seafaring peoples and nations famous explorers travelers and commanders events battles and wars key technologies including famous ships important processes and ongoing events such as piracy and the slave trade and more Readers will benefit from dozens of primary source documents ranging from ancient Egyptian tales of seafaring to texts by renowned travelers like Marco Polo Zheng He and Ibn Battuta that provide firsthand accounts from the age of discovery as well as accounts of battle from World War I and II and more modern accounts of the sea Architect's Drawings A Selection of Sketches by World Famous Architects through History , 2025-08-31 Architect's Drawings A Selection of Sketches by Architects Through History is a fascinating journey into the role of sketches in the design process From the Renaissance to contemporary practice this book explores how architects have used drawings not just as technical tools but as instruments of imagination inspiration and communication Modern Architecture and the Sacred Ross Anderson, Maximilian Sternberg, 2020-11-26 This edited volume Modern Architecture and the Sacred presents a timely reappraisal of the manifold engagements that modern architecture has had with the sacred It comprises fourteen individual chapters arranged in three thematic sections Beginnings and Transformations of the Modern Sacred Buildings for Modern Worship and Semi Sacred Settings in the Cultural Topography of Modernity The first interprets the intellectual and artistic roots of modern ideas of the sacred in the post Enlightenment period and tracks the transformation of these in architecture over time The second studies the ways in which organized religion responded to the challenges of the new modern self understanding and then the third investigates the ways that abstract modern notions of the sacred have been embodied in the ersatz sacred contexts of theatres galleries memorials and museums While centring on Western architecture during the decisive period of the first half of the 20th century a time that takes in the early musings on spirituality by some of the avant garde in defiance of

Sachlichkeit and the machine aesthetic the volume also considers the many varied appropriations of sacrality that architects have made up to the present day and also in social and cultural contexts beyond the West Sitte, Hegemann and the Metropolis Charles Bohl, Jean-François Lejeune, 2009-06-02 These essays from leading names in the field weave together the parallels and differences between the past and present of civic art Offering prospects for the first decades of the twenty first century the authors open up a broad international dialogue on civic art which relates historical practice to the contemporary meaning of civic art and its application to community building within today's multi cultural modern cities The volume brings together the rich perspectives on the thought practice and influence of leading figures from the great era of civic art that began in the nineteenth century and blossomed in the early twentieth century as documented in the works of Werner Hegemann and his contemporaries and considered fundamental to contemporary practice The Architects' Journal, 1997

Koopmans,Arend H. Huussen Jr.,2007-05-22 The Netherlands frequently but erroneously called Holland is one of the most densely populated countries in the world In the past few decades it has been undergoing many transformations made possible by its dynamic and fast moving political landscape It has shifted from fierce nationalism toward a self image of tolerance and permissiveness the national identity and self consciousness has slowly eroded through decolonization and immigration Unfortunately several murders of prominent controversial politicians have started yet another shift away from tolerance and economic stagnation has bred pessimism Nonetheless despite many trials and tribulations there has been real progress and the Dutch have perhaps done a better job of coming to terms with their limitations than many others in the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Netherlands contains more than 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on individual topics spanning the Netherlands political economic and social system along with short biographies on important figures who have shaped the Netherlands history Supplementing the entries are a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introduction appendixes and a bibliography making this a superb quick reference on the Netherlands La otra arquitectura moderna David Rivera Gámez, 2019-02-15 Este libro trata de los estilos y las tendencias de la primera mitad del siglo XX que están ausentes o son marginales en las historias de la arquitectura moderna pero que fueron importantes e influyentes en la época en la que nacieron En el texto se analizan los movimientos expresionistas y simbolistas tanto como los estilos picos modernos el Futurismo el Art Deco el Novecento la arquitectura metafísica el monumentalismo industrial babylonico y los diversos tipos de clasicismo Con ello se pretende restituir toda su riqueza y complejidad a la historia de la arquitectura moderna y reconocer a una serie de grandes arquitectos Michel de Klerk Edwin Lutyens Raymond Hood o Joseph Pleinik entre ellos la importancia de su contribución Dado que a diferencia de la historia del Movimiento Moderno la de los otros estilos de la primera mitad del siglo XX forma parte inseparable de la cultura de ciudades concretas este libro puede verse también como una exploración arquitectónica de los contextos urbanos modernos aun cuando su enfoque se circunscribe a las grandes capitales europeas y los movimientos estadounidenses A lo largo del texto comprobamos cómo París Londres Berlín Praga Moscú Milán Roma Viena Amsterdam Liubliana o Nueva York proporcionaron un sentido de identidad específico a diversos estilos y movimientos arquitectónicos que proponían transformaciones en clave moderna de las distintas tradiciones locales En resumen el libro ofrece una interpretación alternativa de la historia de la arquitectura de la primera mitad del siglo XX y un recorrido amplio aunque inevitablemente selectivo por la otra arquitectura moderna El prólogo es obra de Paul Goldberger antiguo crítico de arquitectura de The New York Times y The New Yorker uno de cuyos libros está traducido al español Por qué importa la arquitectura Ivorypress 2012

The Design Encyclopedia Mel Byars, 2004 Design has an increasingly high profile figures like Philippe Starck are as venerated and well known as more traditional artists But where the literature on fine art is vast design is still comparatively ill served This encyclopedia provides an account of the still largely unknown story of design

Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002-04-25 This new account of international modernism explores the complex motivations behind this revolutionary movement and assesses its triumphs and failures The work of the main architects of the movement such as Frank Lloyd Wright Adolf Loos Le Corbusier and Mies van der Rohe is re-examined shedding new light on their roles as acknowledged masters Alan Colquhoun explores the evolution of the movement from Art Nouveau in the 1890s to the megastructures of the 1960s revealing the often contradictory demands of form function social engagement modernity and tradition

Arquitectura moderna en los Países Bajos, 1920-1945 Rafael García, 2010 La presente obra ofrece al lector un conocimiento más profundo y detallado de los acontecimientos y tendencias más relevantes de la arquitectura moderna entre 1922 y 1945 en los Países Bajos Nace con el objetivo de ser un trabajo de referencia en español dada la ausencia prácticamente total de bibliografía en nuestro idioma sobre el tema
