For-Profit Enterprise in Health Care Institute of Medicine, Committee on Implications of For-Profit Enterprise in Health Care, 1986-01-01 This book is the most authoritative assessment of the advantages and disadvantages of recent trends toward the commercialization of health care says Robert Pear of The New York Times This major study by the Institute of Medicine examines virtually all aspects of for profit health care in the United States including the quality and availability of health care the cost of medical care access to financial capital implications for education and research and the fiduciary role of the physician In addition to the report the book contains 15 papers by experts in the field of for profit health care covering a broad range of topics from trends in the growth of major investor owned hospital companies to the ethical issues in for profit health care The report makes a lasting contribution to the health policy literature Journal of Health Politics Policy and Law Reinventing Care David Barton Smith, 2003 TThe recent growth of assisted living facilities and programs has shaken the foundations of the system of long term care for the elderly in the United States Fueled by consumer frustrations with the available options notably nursing homes the assisted living model emerged during the 1990s to promise shelter health care control of one s own life less government involvement and a real home But how well have the advocates and developers of assisted living delivered on such promises And what are the model s implications for public policy and the future of caregiving In Reinventing Care David Barton Smith offers brilliant insights into those questions by examining the realities of assisted living in New York City Encompassing the largest most concentrated population of elderly in the United States New York spends more per person caring for its seniors than any other urban center Yet while the size of the city's care system boggles the mind it nevertheless contains the same elements that exist in other metropolitan areas and thus provides valuable lessons for the nation as a whole Smith's study draws on twenty five years of research including hundreds of interviews and visits to representative facilities He provides a succinct overview of how care is presently organized for New York's aging population and traces the history of the system up to the present Among the key issues he addresses are the role of market forces and government regulation the impact of class differences on access to quality care and the ways in which perceptions of community affect the creation and management of assisted living programs At the heart of the book are ten fascinating case studies half of them focused on private pay facilities and the other half on public pay institutions While finding that the actualities of assisted living rarely match the rhetoric of its proponents Smith sees much to admire in its goals He suggests tactics and strategies such as promoting family and community based models of assisted living and adopting a standard of licensure for certain facilities that could point the way to a better future Gerontological Social Work Practice in the Community George S. Getzel, M. Joanna Mellor, 1985 Here is an extremely useful book one which will help social workers understand the needs of special populations of older people the nature of practices in the community and some of the policy and practice issues which they confront in their work Strategy Mix for Nonprofit Organisations Annette E. Zimmer, Christina Stecker, 2013-03-19 In many countries particularly in continental Europe societies have been plagued by high unemployment for several decades Simultaneously due to recent shifts from industrial to service oriented post industrial societies labor as a significant culture code is increasingly losing importance Because of this the third or voluntary sector as a place of employment and as a service agency to society has become important for Europe as indicated by the 1997 Communication of the European Commission and various declarations by the European Parliament and the EU's Economic and Social Council Strategy Mix for Nonprofit Organizations Vehicles for Social and Labor Market Integration explores the role of the third sector in Europe where unemployment is high and in North America where unemployment is rising and exploring the gaps that the third sector is fulfilling both as a social service and as an employer The volume is organized into two distinctive parts Part 1 The Nonprofit Sector and Social Integration highlights the embeddedness of the sector in selected countries it discusses how the sector is currently affected by changes of public policy particularly in the traditional social democratic welfare state regimes and it draws our attention to the sector's potentials to provide avenues for social integration self actualization and civic empowerment Part 2 Labor Concepts and Market Integration refers to the multifunctionality of third sector organizations discussing potentials of workplace as well as community involvement via nonprofit organizations This seminal volume will be of interest to those in the nonprofit sector organizational management

This case study of a highly unusual form of maternity is a valuable addition to the literature on handicapped or deviant children It is an account of how mothers who took part in a government sponsored habilitation program in Montreal perceived the process of bearing and rearing or deciding not to rear a child with congenital thalidomide induced deformities Professor Roskies traces how the biological psychological and social factors interacted and changed over time as she sought to conceptualize and describe a new way of understanding the elements involved in the mothering of a handicapped child She raises a number of disturbing questions about our customary ways of viewing this form of mother child relationship

The State of Nonprofit America Lester M. Salamon,2004-05-13 The thousands of organizations that comprise America's private nonprofit sector represent a national treasure Yet serious pressures are altering the playing field on which nonprofits operate and many are responding in ways that may undermine their popular support Despite the significance of these developments little has been done to analyze and interpret them in a clear and understandable way Lester M Salamon a leading authority on the nonprofit sector has joined forces with more than a dozen other experts and the Aspen Institute to produce this volume an integrated authoritative assessment of the state of nonprofit America and the key trends affecting its evolution The book is organized into three sections The first summarizes critical trends and issues the second examines each of the sector's major subsectors e g health education social services arts and culture international assistance advocacy the third focuses on major cross cutting trends and issues commercialization changing government policy accountability and demographic and technological imperatives The Resilient Sector will be updated every two years It provides a basic sourcebook for sector leaders the press public officials and citizens concerned about the future of America's nonprofit sector and eager to understand the forces affecting it Welfare Medicine in America ,2003-01-01 This volume contains a
