Floyd, Sandra E. Mimms, Caroline Yelding, 2003 PERSONAL HEALTH PERSPECTIVES AND LIFESTYLES emphasizes the individual s personal responsibility for wellness by presenting general core and current health information to guide decision making The focus of the text is to present health topics including cultural racial ethnic and gender diversity identify risk factors and give students useful and sensible suggestions to reduce their risk for preventable diseases and conditions in order to achieve optimal levels of wellness for themselves friends and family Filled with practical advice stimulating discussion questions and self assessment exercises this text take an applied approach and empowers students to take control of their own health. Concentrated emphasis on health issues as they relate to various cultural differences make this text one of the most up to date resources for health related culture, gender, ethnic and age issues. NutritionNow (With Infotrac and Dietary Guidelines for Americans) Judith E. Brown, 2005. NUTRITION NOW is the best option for professors looking for a non majors text that is research based yet presented in an applied consumer oriented approach. Its unique modular format is comprised of 33 individual units as opposed to a traditional 12 to 15 chapter sequence that cover the basics of nutrition science and its applications to daily life. Instructors have the flexibility to choose which units to cover and to modify the sequence of coverage to meet the interests and needs of their students and the course. Plus besides the flexibility of the text there is a new Instructor's Activity Book that includes a variety of suggested class activities and labs that allow instructors to design an interactive environment regardless of the class size. This edition incorporates up to date coverage of the newest research and emerging issues in nutrition. The interactive pedagogical features of this text along with the author's direct and friendly writing style make it a favorite among readers and instructors alike.
