war on society Out to Win Coningsby Dawson,2015-06-30 Excerpt from Out to Win The Story of America in France I am not writing this preface for the conscious fool but for his self deceived brother who considers himself a very wise person My hope is that some persons may recognise themselves and be provided with food for thought They will usually be people who have contributed little to this war except mean views and endless talk Had they shared the sacrifice of it they would have developed within themselves the faculty for a wider generosity The extraordinary thing about generosity is its eagerness to recognise itself in others You find these untravelled critics and mischief makers on both sides of the Atlantic In most cases they have no definite desire to work harm but they have inherited cantankerous prejudices which date back to the American Revolution and they lack the vision to perceive that this war despite its horror and tragedy is the God given chance of centuries to re unite the great Anglo Saxon races of the world in a truer bond of kindness and kinship About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
