New Readings in Latin American and Spanish Literary and Cultural Studies Alejandro Cortázar, Laura M. Martins, 2014-03-17 Presenting and interrogating an array of texts and discourses this collection brings into focus a broad range of topics whose common denominator is the intersection between cultural productions and politics in different moments of the history of Latin America and Spain From the struggles of class distinction identity and community in 19th and 20th century and contemporary Latin America as explored in photography literature and film to how political and sexual transgressions from medieval times to the present are portrayed in Hispanic literature and the ways that canonical and non-canonical texts in Spain have been defying hegemonic power relations in the 20th century and beyond This volume provides fresh approaches from well-established scholars as well as from a new generation of researchers whose works enlighten the reader about the rich facets of such intersections This publication also offers a background to pursue further research in these areas and to serve the general public interested in Latin American and Spanish literary and cultural studies and those seeking a greater understanding of social and economic change in both Latin America and Spain specifically issues of inclusion and citizenship the constraints on state power in the neoliberal era the strategies used by texts to create subjects that are not bound to conventional identity formations and the challenges and possibilities of subverting the gaze of the institutional spectator The Cinema of Víctor Erice Linda C. Ehrlich, 2007-02-01 To coincide with the recent DVD release of The Spirit of the Beehive this paperback collection of essays focuses on the work of acclaimed Spanish director Víctor Erice. Originally published in hardcover under the title An Open Window this expanded edition draws on original essays, reprints and new translations from an international group of writers. New to this edition are four essays from noted film scholars including editor Linda C. Ehrlich as well as three added essays from the filmmaker himself. Both the original and new material provide a deeper appreciation of Erice's three feature length films: The Spirit of the Beehive (El espíritu de la colmena 1973), El Sur 1982 and Dream of Light aka The Quince Tree Sun (El sol del membrillo 1992) as well as his shorter works including his most recent accomplishment La morte rouge 2006. This anthology examines the aesthetic, historical and sociological forces at work in Erice's films and includes an extensive interview with the director. This broad array of writings provides insight into not only three unforgettable films but also into twentieth century Spanish society as well as world cinema. The Cinema of Víctor Erice: An Open Window will serve as an important resource to measure the career of this director who along with Buñuel, Saura and Almodóvar has helped show the world the creative range of Spanish cinema. With additional essays, translations and illustrations this paperback edition explores new avenues of expression pursued by one of the most poetic of modern filmmakers.
