Pentecostal Anglicans:

Anglicans and Pentecostals in Dialogue David Hilborn, Simo Frestadius, 2023-09-22 This is the first comprehensive book on Anglican and Pentecostal ecumenical relations. It introduces both movements with a particular focus on their approaches to ecumenism before exploring sacraments, ministry, ecclesiology, pneumatology, and mission with respect to both traditions. As well as providing more theological and historical discussion, the book also offers personal accounts of local, national, and international ecumenical engagement by both Anglicans and Pentecostals. It is written predominantly, although not exclusively, from a British perspective. Even so, as the first major published dialogue between these two global Christian traditions, the book will be of value to all interested in Anglicanism, Pentecostalism, and ecumenism. Evangelicals in the

Charismatics and Postmodernity Jitesh K. Patel, 2025-09-05 Is charismatic renewal a bit too much like postmodernism With its multiple ways of knowing what is true touchy feely and pragmatic with an emphasis on personal story and community why does it look like something dreamt up by postmoderns longing for a church befitting their ideals This book explores these questions by investigating an example of charismatic renewal the Charismatic Movement in the Church of England leading to some surprising results Appearances can be deceiving and what seems postmodern about charismatic renewal is a complex mix of modernism reactions to modernism and a longing to go back to a time before modernism reared its head Jitesh Patel helps show how renewal's ongoing life has much still to contribute to the wider church's life once it recognizes the strengths and weaknesses of how it has formed in the context of modernism and the chapters herein illuminate what its future could look like as a result
