Iron Coffin David A. Mindell, 2012-02-09 The USS Monitor famously battled the CSS Virginia the armored and refitted USS Merrimack at Hampton Roads in March 1862 This updated edition of David A Mindell s classic account of the ironclad warships and the human dimension of modern warfare commemorates the 150th anniversary of this historic encounter Mindell explores how mariners fighting blindly below the waterline lived in and coped with the metal monster they called the iron coffin He investigates how the ironclad technology new to war in the nineteenth century changed not only the tools but also the experience of combat and anticipated today s world of mechanized pushbutton warfare The writings of William Frederick Keeler the ship s paymaster inform much of this book as do the experiences of everyman sailor George Geer who held Keeler in some contempt Mindell uses their compelling stories and those of other shipmates to recreate the thrills and dangers of living and fighting aboard this superweapon Recently pieces of the Monitor wreck have been raised from their watery grave and with them information about the ship continues to be discovered A new epilogue describes the recovery of the Monitor turret and its display at the USS Monitor Museum in Newport News Virginia This sensitive and enthralling history of the USS Monitor ensures that this fateful ship and the men who served on it will be remembered for generations to come     Report of the Secretary of the Navy in Relation to Armored Vessels United States.
