The Theology of the Gospel of John Dwight Moody Smith, 1995-01-26 D. Moody Smith treats the theology of the Gospel of John in its narrative form and historical context, both ancient Jewish and early Christian. His work draws upon the most recent scholarly investigations of the Gospel's historical purpose and setting. The major theological themes of the Gospel, especially its christology, are treated in relation to the context of the work, since Johannine theology is not simply a by-product of controversies that produced the Gospel but is rather related to them in significant ways. As Professor Smith shows, John marks an important watershed between Christianity and Judaism. His study will thus serve equally well as an introduction to the question of the origin of John and as an introduction to its theology. It also consistently pays attention to the relationship of the Gospel to other major New Testament witnesses as well as to its important influence upon the development of later Christian doctrine.

The Face of Christ Dr. H.S. Ryu, Table of Contents Christ and His Church is going to govern God's universe through all eternity. God is going to recover and restore. Overcomers will govern the universe throughout eternity. Jesus Christ is the Ruler of the kings of the earth. All things were created in Christ through Christ for Christ. Why was Jesus born to die? The grace of God leads all the way through. With Christ, character is power. Jesus is the Son of Man. The heavenly mind and nature of Christ. The Character of Jesus Christ leads to the Throne. The story of Jesus. Only perfect goodness is good enough for God. May we grow and take over the place of Satan, the ruler of this world and rule with Christ. The Church is here to show the character of Christ. Christ insists on maintaining our first love for Christ. Seeing Christ is a profound experience. May we recover our first love for Christ.

The Christology of John Macquarrie Vernon L. Purdy, 2009 The Christology of John Macquarrie comprehensively scrutinizes the life and writings of Scottish born systematic theologian and philosopher John Macquarrie. 1919-2007 in an attempt to comprehend and evaluate his Christology. The author examines the people e.g. Heidegger, Schleiermacher, the philosophical and theological positions and the writings that formed Macquarrie's thinking. One major influence was his commitment to modern critical theology, including the premise that in the modern world the only acceptable Christological tenets are those that can stand up to the scrutiny of modern critical reasoning. The work concludes that this commitment profoundly shaped Macquarrie's theology, especially his Christology. The book also discusses Macquarrie's evaluation and criticisms of the Christology of other theologians e.g. Kierkegaard, Moltmann, Pannenberg and others, concluding that Macquarrie's understanding of the Christian faith and the person of Jesus Christ is consonant with modern liberal Anglo Catholicism This idea furthers the argument that Macquarrie s reluctance to accept traditional incarnational categories suggests that his Christology is a modern form of Adoptionism
