Wazi,2019-07-25 Chinua Achebe The art of fiction famously observed that until lions have their own historians the history of the hunt will always glorify the hunter In this volume chronicling the complex imperial and colonial entanglements of the Kpando region in eastern Ghana over recent centuries the lions have found their proverbial historian Drawing on an array of sources archaeological oral historical and documentary Wazi Apoh brings locally nuanced perspective to the complex social political economic entanglements among Akpini German and British actors His illumination of previously silenced histories provides a rich platform from which to provoke us to imagine and act on the possibilities for restorative repatriation in the present Its novel combination of historical study with analysis of ongoing dialogues over repatriation is a unique contribution to African studies Readings from the Perspective of Earth Norman C. Habel,2000-08-01 This volume introduces the hermeneutical approach and ecojustice principles developed by the Earth Bible project team Following this approach biblical scholars illustrate how a reading of the biblical text from the perspective of Earth yields fresh insights Though the text may seem anthropocentric these studies are able to retrieve evidence of the living voice and intrinsic value of Earth It is an approach that can be harmonized with other recognized critical approaches to the Bible from historical criticism to ecofeminist criticism The texts chosen are from many parts of the Bible Psalms Prophets Gospels Romans Revelation and the intertestamental literature Tobit and Wisdom of Solomon Karl Barth's Theology as a Resource for a Christian Theology of Religions Sven Ensminger, 2014-08-28 This book uses Karl Barth's theology as a resource for Christian theology of religions For this purpose it examines Barth's theology under the doctrinal aspects of revelation revelation and religion theological anthropology and election addressing questions such as the possibility of and context for revelation Barth's understanding of religion the theological approach to the human being and soteriology Furthermore Barth's thought is put into conversation with other approaches in the field of theology of religions notably Karl Rahner's inclusivism and John Hick and the pluralist paradigm It is shown that Barth's theological system as a whole can serve as a resource for the Christian approach to and interaction with those of other faiths or no faith at all This is achieved through maintaining a balance between the commitment to the own faith and the openness to the sovereignty of God impacting the whole of creation Central to Barth's approach is the challenge to the Christian community to see their presuppositions challenged in the most unexpected circumstances while looking beyond human categories to affirm the dignity bestowed upon all of humanity through the divine Yes in the person Jesus Christ Barth's theology with its starting point in the person of Jesus Christ is advocated as a framework for the members of the Christian community as they live alongside those with a different faith from their own
