Brode, 2019-12-12 Focusing on twenty first century Western films including all major releases since the turn of the century the essays in this volume cover a broad range of aesthetic and thematic aspects explored in these films including gender and race As diverse contributors focus on the individual subgenres of the traditional Western the gunfighter the Cavalry vs Native American conflict the role of women in Westerns etc they share an understanding of the twenty first century Western may be understood as a genre in itself They argue that the films discussed here reimagine certain aspects of the more conventional Western and often reverse the ideology contained within them while employing certain forms and clichés that have become synonymous internationally with Westerns The result is a contemporary sensibility that might be referred to as the postmodern Western The Masculine Century Michael Antony, 2008-05 Now that the Twentieth Century is behind us what made it what it was 200 million human beings killed by war totalitarianism and extermination programs What made the twentieth century the most murderous age in human history as well as the age that made the greatest

Goldman,2000-10-19 The book calls for a new iconography of region that unseats New England s status as cultural center of the United States and originary metaphor for national identity No single territorial or political axis can adequately describe the complex regional relationships that comprise the nation Goldman argues The essays in this volume juxtapose African American Mexican American and Anglo American fictions produced in the wake of both the Civil War and the U S Mexican War contiguous national conflicts that remain segregated in critical practice At once comparative and intertextual the readings in this study redefine western literature in its relation to other U S regional literary formations
